General Conditions applicable to the Tariffs and Conditions

These Tariffs and Conditions cover standard products and services. In case some fees and commissions are established via direct negotiations, these will prevail against the standard tariffs. Charges for transactions not mentioned herein are subject to special arrangements, depending on their nature and extent. Transactions denominated in foreign currency are charged in the respective currency and expressed in the present brochure either in EUR or in RON using the official National Bank of Romania exchange rate valid for the debit date, as published on the official website of the NBR: <http://www.bnro.ro>. The fees for interbank transactions in RON include clearing charges. Third party expenses (such as mail, courier fees charged by other banks for investigations etc.) are excluded and will be charged separately, on a real-cost basis.

Any charges, tariffs, commissions may be modified by the Bank with a 10 banking days prior notice and shall be applied immediately afterwards. By signing the Account Opening Application or the ING International Account and Product Agreement, as the case may be, the Client, fully informed, accepts the provisions of these Tariffs and Conditions which are part of the framework contract that represents the basis of the contractual relationship between the Client and ING Bank NV. Amsterdam, Bucharest Branch. By signing the Account Opening Application or the ING International Account and Product Agreement, the Client, acknowledges, understands and expressly accepts that ING Bank N.V. Amsterdam, Bucharest Branch reserves the right to modify the tariffs and conditions at any moment in time, as well as the provisions regarding the payment of interest for balances of current accounts and unauthorised overdraft of current accounts.

Conditions

Business Days

ING Bank N.V. Amsterdam, Bucharest Branch shall be opened for business from Monday to Friday inclusively, except for the non-banking days which can be either legal holidays in Romania, such as: July 1st and 2nd, July 24th, the Orthodox Good Friday, the first and second day of Easter holiday, May 1st, June 1st, the first and second day of Pentecost, August 15th, November 30th, December 1st, first and second day of Christmas, or non-public business days in which ING Bank N.V. Amsterdam, Bucharest Branch may be opened for business, but not opened to the public.

Debit and Credit interest rates

ING Bank N.V. Amsterdam, Bucharest Branch reserves the right to apply administration fees or charges for the credit balance of Client's account, as they will be mentioned in the Tariffs in force at the time or displayed at its premises, the provisions relating to costs, charges, tariffs of this section being applied accordingly. ING Bank N.V. Amsterdam, Bucharest Branch will compute, retain and pay, without any other notice or formality, any fees and / or taxes on interest and / or other income made by the Client, in accordance with the applicable law. ING Bank N.V. Amsterdam, Bucharest

Branch will charge interest on the debit balance (unauthorized overdraft) as it is determined by the Bank on all amounts, including, without limitation, on the principal, interest, fees, costs, charges, fees and other expenses that are overdue. The Client acknowledges expressly agrees in full awareness the penalty interest level and the fact that it reflects the (direct and indirect) loss incurred by ING Bank N.V. Amsterdam, Bucharest Branch and agrees to pay in full any such interest in accordance with the herein Tariffs. If the applicable reference rate (e.g. Euribor or Libor, for example) is lower than zero, then such reference shall be considered to be zero. Overdrafts on accounts are not permitted by default. Should nevertheless an overdraft be agreed at short notice, the debit interest rates referenced here will be applied at that time. ING Bank N.V. Amsterdam, Bucharest Branch reserves the right to unilaterally adjust these debit interest rates for unauthorised overdraft.

Cut off time, value date and maximum execution time for payment instructions

During the banking days and banking hours, ING Bank N.V. Amsterdam, Bucharest Branch performs transactions based on the Cut Off Times schedule provided online in the Cut-Off Times (COT) and Settlement Dating table. The maximum execution time for payment instructions is counted from the moment of the instruction receipt, according to specific provisions of each payment instrument. Payment instructions sent by the Client after the cut-off time are considered to be received by the Bank in the following banking day. Collections received by the Bank in favor of the Client after the cut-off time are considered to be received in the following banking day.

For cross border payments instructions in RON or in other currencies (non-SEPA payments), the Client has the possibility to instruct by one of the following means:

Payments with standard processing:

- SPOT – payment in which the credit of the correspondent payer's bank or of the beneficiary's correspondent bank is done in two days' time (D+2) from the receiving/accepting moment of the instruction by the Bank. For payments in EUR, made within EEA the maximum execution time is D+1.

Payment with urgent processing:

- TVD (tomorrow value date) – payment in which the credit of the correspondent payer's bank or of the beneficiary's correspondent bank is done in one day from the receiving/accepting moment of the instruction by the Bank.
- SVD (same value date) – payment in which the credit of the correspondent payer's bank or of the beneficiary's correspondent bank is done in the same banking day (D) with the receiving/accepting moment of the instruction by the Bank.

In case the Customer has not expressed his consent on the instructing rules, the Bank shall process the payment as per standard rules.

- Execution of Same day / Next day, payments is restricted by the cut-off times and conditions imposed by the national and international clearing houses. The Bank processes Same day / Next day Client instructions on best effort basis, upon cut-off times, in order to ensure minimal execution time.

Current account with ING Bank N.V. Amsterdam, Bucharest Branch

In order to access payment services, any legal person shall request to ING Bank N.V. Amsterdam, Bucharest Branch to open accounts in ING Bank N.V. Amsterdam, Bucharest Branch's records in the currency deemed necessary for its business, provided that ING Bank N.V. Amsterdam, Bucharest Branch performs transactions in the respective currency. Information on the currencies accepted by ING Bank N.V. Amsterdam, Bucharest Branch for account opening and payment transactions is available at ING Bank N.V. Amsterdam, Bucharest Branch, as well as with the local account manager.

Receipt and consent for payment instruments

Upon receipt of funds denominated in other currency than RON, for a Client's account, if the Client doesn't have an account in the currency of the payment order, ING Bank N.V. Amsterdam, Bucharest Branch will automatically convert the currency received in the corresponding currency of the account specified in the payment instruction. The exchange rate shall be settled at ING Bank N.V. Amsterdam, Bucharest Branch exchange rate. For the execution of credit transfer payments, ING Bank N.V. Amsterdam, Bucharest Branch may use several payment instruments. The moment of receipt, the expressing of consent as well as the maximum execution time differ according to the payment instrument used and are described in ING Conditions for Payment Services and further on in this document.

Payment orders processing

The processing of the payment orders is done by ING Bank N.V. Amsterdam, Bucharest Branch according to the rules of the national or international payment systems, which mention different execution timelines depending on the currency, the amount, beneficiary's country, date and time of payment order presentation.

Payment instructions

In order to correctly execute the transactions, irrespective of the payment instrument used, the payment order shall contain the following mandatory items:

- information on the payer: name, IBAN account opened at its payment service provider and the BIC code (except for domestic payments in RON and SEPA payments) of the payment service provider;
- information on the Beneficiary: name, IBAN account opened at its payment service provider, the name of the payment service provider as well as its BIC code (except for domestic payments in RON and SEPA payments);
- the amounts in numbers and, for paper forms, the amounts in letters;
- details (description) of the payment;
- the issuing date of the payment order.

Treasury Payments

For payment orders in favour of the Romanian State Treasury, the Client shall provide additional information:

- the fiscal identification code of the payer;
- the fiscal identification code of the Beneficiary;
- the payment registration number, allocated by the National Fiscal Administration Agency;
- the payment order number given by the payer;
- a reference on the economic content of the operation

e-Customs service

The e-Customs service (electronic settlement of customs duty payments) facilitates the import payments instructions. The product aims to simplify the mechanism of payments instructed by ING Bank N.V. Amsterdam, Bucharest Branch's Clients in favour of different customs points. By using this application, the information flow between companies, customs and the Bank concerning the payment of customs taxes is substantially simplified, thus increasing the efficiency of the whole process. In fact, this product replaces the paper based order justifying copy, necessary for the customs clearance with an electronic confirmation of these payments made by the importers. The entire mechanism is based on an electronic interface between all the involved parties.

Direct Debit Collections

ING Bank N.V. Amsterdam, Bucharest Branch offers to its Clients Direct Debit Collections through the DiDe module in the IBP, where the beneficiary Client may send direct debit instructions on the accounts of its payers. The Direct Debit Collections are executed by ING Bank N.V. Amsterdam, Bucharest Branch according to the „Direct Debit Agreement” document.

Merchant Acquiring Services

The card issuing services for legal persons, as well as the transactions that may be instructed are executed by ING Bank N.V. Amsterdam, Bucharest Branch according to the “General conditions on the use of cards for legal entities”. ING Bank N.V. Amsterdam, Bucharest Branch offers card payment acceptance service through electronic payment terminals.

In order to receive this service, the Client accepts to have the terminals installed in its locations in order to allow its cardholder Clients to pay for the purchased goods and services. The card payment acceptance service is executed by ING Bank N.V. Amsterdam, Bucharest Branch according to the “Merchant Agreement” document.

Loss, theft or unauthorized use of a Payment Instrument

In case of loss, theft or unauthorized use of a Payment Instrument the Client shall take all reasonable actions immediately upon obtaining a Payment Instrument to protect personalized security features and report to ING Bank N.V. Amsterdam, Bucharest Branch in writing, by telephone or e-mail, any loss, theft, abuse or unauthorized use of a Payment Instrument without undue delay after they learn of such loss, theft, abuse or unauthorized use. The client shall report to ING Bank N.V. Amsterdam, Bucharest Branch any unauthorized Payment Transaction not later than 13 months from the date the funds were debited from the Client's Current Account. The liability of ING Bank N.V. Amsterdam, Bucharest Branch for any unauthorized Payment Transaction shall cease to exist once any of the aforesaid time limits have lapsed.

Payment Orders in writing

- It is not possible to include an instruction regarding the Execution Date in a written non-recurring Payment Order
- Recurring payment order can only be instructed through IBP

- Direct Debit is only available for electronic instructions, in RON and between accounts held in Romania.

SWIFT messages

ING Bank N.V. Amsterdam, Bucharest Branch acts as Receiving Bank for the MT101 message sent by an Initiating Bank at the order of a third party, thus offering an adequate funds management for the relation between a company and its subsidiaries or between companies in the group. The information contained within the account statement may be communicated by means of SWIFT MT940 messages to a third party, either a bank or another institution or company, indicated by the Client in the authorisation form transmitted to ING Bank N.V. Amsterdam, Bucharest Branch.

Account statements

ING Bank N.V. Amsterdam, Bucharest Branch will inform the Client about the status of the current account through an „Account statement”. ING Bank N.V. Amsterdam, Bucharest Branch will provide the account statement at least once a month, free of charge, on paper base or by other means as agreed by the parties. In case the Client requests such documents with a higher frequency than once a month, the Bank may apply a charge as specified in this brochure. The account statement may be provided on a daily basis, free of charge, in electronic form, through IBP.
