1. Scope and applicable conditions

1.1 These Conditions apply to the relationship between the Client and ING and to all Services provided by ING. Additional conditions may apply to specific Services.

1.2 The Schedules to these Conditions form an integral part of the Conditions. In the event of a conflict between an Agreement and these Conditions, the Agreement prevails. In the event of a conflict between the General Part of these Conditions (including country specific conditions relating to this General Part) and a Schedule (including country specific conditions relating to such Schedule) then the provisions of the Schedule shall prevail. Country specific conditions will prevail over the non-country specific conditions. In case additional conditions apply regarding a specific Service such additional conditions will, unless indicated otherwise, prevail in case of a conflict with these Conditions.

1.3 If these Conditions are provided to the Client in a language other than English, the English language version will prevail.

2. Availability and amendments

2.1 If requested ING will provide copies of the relevant Service Documents on paper or on another durable medium.

2.2 ING may change these Conditions and other Service Documents with a two months' notice period. The Client will be deemed to have accepted the change, unless it has terminated in writing the relevant Service Document with effect prior to the proposed effective date of the change. Such termination is free of charge. If the Client chooses to so terminate, such Services Document shall terminate on the effective date of the amendments. On such date all claims of ING vis-à-vis the Client under such Services Document become immediately due and payable.

For this Clause any change to any Services Document (including a Schedule or related country specific provisions), will only be considered a change to such document if the Client obtains the relevant Service from the relevant ING Office and only such Client will be informed accordingly.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, operational procedures, instructions and manuals may be changed by ING with immediate effect.

2.3 ING has the right to unilaterally change (the functions within) a Service with immediate effect if it cannot reasonably be expected that ING continues to provide such Service in this manner. ING will not be liable to the Client or any third party for any loss and/or damage resulting thereof.

3. General obligations and undertakings

3.1 The Client can use a Service only after the application and, if applicable, opening process has been completed to ING's satisfaction.

3.2 The Client represents that it is not a Consumer and that the Services shall only be used for purposes pertaining to the Client's profession, trade or business. The Client further agrees that, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any provisions of law that may otherwise be deemed applicable to the Agreement and these Conditions, but that may be disapplied or applied differently to non-Consumers will be so disapplied or applied differently and replaced by the provisions of this Agreement and these Conditions.

3.3 The Client shall comply with all security procedures and provisions supplied by ING in accordance with the Services. The Client must inform ING immediately if there are reasonable grounds to suspect a security breach.

3.4 The Client shall comply with all applicable laws and regulations, including all license requirements and anti-money-laundering, anti-terrorism financing, sanctions and tax laws and regulations. The Client shall not use the Services for activities or purposes that are in violation of any law or regulation, or that can have a detrimental effect on the reputation of ING or on the integrity of the financial system.

3.5 The Client is obliged to co-operate with ING and provide any information and documents and do all such acts required by ING for ING to be able to:

(i) comply with all applicable laws, acts, regulations and guidelines or instructions issued by competent authorities, including anti-money laundering, anti-terrorism financing, sanctions, customer-due-diligence, sustainability and know-your-customer requirements or according to ING's policies and procedures for the provision of the Services, (ii) comply with information and reporting requirements in accordance with applicable laws and regulations or requests or requirements of local and foreign (tax and regulatory) authorities, (iii) check the Client's identity, its activities and objectives and (iv) explain the reasons for the (intended) use of a Service, the origin of funds used for or received through a Service or transaction and the economic nature of (the use of) a Service or transaction. The Client confirms and shall ensure that all information (to be) provided to ING is accurate and complete.

3.6 When dealing with ING the Client, each relevant legal representative and each User is obliged to identify itself. At ING's first request the Client must provide ING with a specimen of its, each relevant legal representative's and each User's current handwritten signatures in a form and format as required by ING.

3.7 The Client must promptly, and, unless indicated otherwise in these Conditions, ultimately within 30 calendar days, inform ING in writing of any changes in the information supplied to ING, including but not limited to a change in its tax status or if the Client has become a Consumer, and any documents evidencing such change. ING may rely upon the information provided by the Client until it receives a notice of change or update of the information provided.

3.8 Each ING Office must as soon as possible be notified in writing or, if such option is available, via an ING Channel, if the Client is no longer in existence or no longer authorised to dispose of or operate a Service, failing which ING may (continue to) perform its obligations and execute or forward Instructions received from or on behalf of the Client. In addition, ING may (continue to) execute, or forward an Instruction it received prior to or shortly after ING was notified in writing of aforementioned events if ING cannot reasonably prevent the execution or forwarding thereof. After the notice of an event as indicated in this sub-Clause, ING may require that the person who claims to be authorised to perform (legal) acts on behalf of (the estate of) the Client submits proof thereof in form and substance acceptable to ING.

3.9 If at any time the Client ascertains that all or any part of a Service is unavailable and/or not working properly it will promptly inform ING thereof.

3.10 The Client is responsible for determining whether any Service is suitable for the intended purposes of the Client.

3.11 The Client acknowledges that ING does not provide any tax or legal advice, and ING recommends that the Client takes advice from a tax or legal expert in case of any doubt with respect to the tax, fiscal and/or legal obligations of the Client.

4. Electronic agreements, communication and signature

4.1 The Client agrees to obtain (further) Services from ING by electronic means if and to the extent so offered. It will be indicated per Service which requirements have to be fulfilled and when the agreement is effective.

4.2 For all Instructions, agreements, communications and other Service Documents issued or agreed upon by electronic means, the Client agrees that its Electronic Signature, or that of a User or legal representative on the Client's behalf, constitutes proof of its consent to Instructions, agreements, communications or other Service Documents and proof of its identity and that it has the same evidential value as a document signed by the Client, legal representative or User with its handwritten signature.

4.3 The Client agrees that Service Documents (including any amendments thereto) and all documents, information and/or conditions as referred to therein may be provided to the Client by electronic means regardless of whether the Agreement has been concluded electronically.

5. ING Authorisation Instrument

5.1 The Service Documents applicable to an ING Authorisation Instrument specify which personalised device(s) and/or set of procedures form an ING Authorisation Instrument.

5.2 The Client shall use an ING Authorisation Instrument in accordance with the Service Documents and ING's instructions or information on the use thereof.

5.3 An ING Authorisation Instrument is, unless indicated otherwise, strictly personal and non-transferable and may not be changed, copied or reproduced.

5.4 ING may assign a validity period to an ING Authorisation Instrument and ING is entitled to shorten or extend such validity period at any time.

5.5 The Client shall upon receipt of an ING Authorisation Instrument take all measures required by ING to keep the ING Authorisation Instrument and its personalised security credentials safe. The Client shall furthermore take any measure that can reasonably be expected to ensure the security of the personalised security credentials and shall keep these credentials, including its Electronic Signature and password, secret and not share them with any third party, except for authorised third party PSPs that are allowed under applicable law to rely on ING's authentication procedures when providing their payment services. The Client shall store the ING Authorisation Instrument in a place to which unauthorised parties have no access. Subject to evidence to the contrary, the fact that personalised security credentials and/or an ING Authorisation Instrument is used by an unauthorised third party will constitute proof that the Client has failed to keep or store such items safe and secure and that they were accessible to third parties. The Client shall ensure that Users shall observe and comply with all obligations of this Clause 5.

5.6 The Client shall take note of the information provided by ING in relation to the secure use of an ING Authorisation Instrument and the measures that the Client must take to prevent fraud or other misuse of such ING Authorisation Instrument and shall act, and shall ensure that Users shall act, in accordance with such information. ING may change such information and in urgent situations such changes can be applied by ING with immediate effect. ING will inform the Client accordingly.

5.7 The Client shall, and shall ensure that a User shall:

- (i) without undue delay notify ING, on becoming aware of (a) any loss, theft, misappropriation or unauthorised use of (personalised security credentials of) an ING Authorisation Instrument or (b) a technical incident or any other fault which might jeopardise the security of (personalised security credentials of) an ING Authorisation Instrument. The means of notification and the contact details of ING for such notification can be found on the Website, in the applicable Services Document, an ING Channel or as otherwise communicated by ING. A failure to notify ING without undue delay constitutes gross negligence of the Client, and
- (ii) immediately send a confirmation in writing to ING of any telephonic notification, which written confirmation must contain the date, time and any further relevant information of such notification.

5.8 If an ING Authorisation Instrument is provided by a third party, ING is not a party to the agreement between the Client and such third party and all costs relating thereto shall be for the Client's account. ING will not be liable for any loss and/or damage, of any nature whatsoever, incurred by the Client relating to the services offered by such third party.

6. Blocking

6.1 ING is, unless prohibited by applicable law, authorised to block or suspend an ING Authorisation Instrument or (access to) any Service:

- (i) in case of the non-compliance with the instructions and requirements as referred to in Clause 17 of this General Part,
- (ii) in case of any of the events as indicated in Clause 26 of this General Part,
- (iii) for reasons relating to security or the suspicion of improper, unauthorised or fraudulent access or use of such ING Authorisation Instrument or Service, or

(iv) in the event the Client is indicted or otherwise subject to any criminal or regulatory investigation or convicted.

6.2 The Client may request ING to block its or a User's ING Authorisation Instrument or (access to) any Service and a User may request to block its ING Authorisation Instrument or (access to) any Service. Notwithstanding any blocking request ING may continue the execution or forwarding of Instructions that have been given to ING by such Client or User prior to or shortly after receiving such blocking request if ING cannot reasonably prevent the execution or forwarding thereof.

6.3 Upon becoming aware of any improper, unauthorised or fraudulent access or use of an ING Authorisation Instrument or Service by a User or a third party, the Client shall immediately terminate or block such person's access to and use of the ING Authorisation Instrument or Service and shall inform ING promptly thereof. ING is not liable for any loss and/or damage incurred by the Client. The Client will indemnify ING for any loss and/or damage incurred, as a result of the failure by the Client to comply with this Clause.

6.4 ING is not liable for any loss and/or damage incurred by the Client or a third party as a result of the blockage or a suspension of an ING Authorisation Instrument or (access to) a Service.

6.5 In case of a block by ING, ING shall, where possible prior to such blocking, inform the Client of such a block and the reasons thereof, unless such communication would compromise objectively justified security reasons or is restricted or prohibited by applicable laws or regulations.

6.6 ING shall unblock (access to) a Service or ING Authorisation Instrument or replace the latter by a new ING Authorisation Instrument, as soon as ING, in its sole discretion, determines there are no longer grounds for such blockage or suspension to stay in effect.

7. ING App and Channel

If agreed, the Client may use an ING App or ING Channel to access and use Services. If accessed via an App Services or features might be limited. Additional conditions apply to the use of an ING Channel or App.

8. Conditional credit

8.1 Any amount or asset made available to the Client by or via ING, whether in cash, by means of a book entry into an account or by any other method, pursuant to a transaction where settlement is not yet known or final or before ING has received such amount or asset, constitutes an advance made by ING to the Client subject to the due performance of such transaction.

8.2 The due performance condition shall be fulfilled by the settlement of the transaction and/or the receipt by ING of such amount or asset free at its disposal within a reasonable period. In the absence of such settlement, the Client will immediately repay ING an amount equal to the (value of the) asset or amount it has received, plus applicable interest.

9. Fees and expenses

9.1 Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the Tariff Brochure lays out the fees and costs applicable to the relationship between the Client and ING and to the Services used by the Client. The Client is obliged to pay these fees and costs. The Client is also obliged to pay ING the third-party fees and costs charged to ING by any such third-party involved in the execution of the relevant transaction under the Services used by the Client. The Tariff Brochure can be found at <https://www.ingwb.com/en/service/payments-and-collections/tariffs-and-conditions>. ING may change the Tariffs and the Tariff Brochure and such changes can be applied with immediate effect and without prior notice.

9.2 The Client must maintain an Available Balance which is sufficient to meet its financial obligations towards ING at the time that these obligations shall be due and payable. If the Client fails to pay an amount on the due date ING shall be entitled to charge default interest. Information regarding the applicable rate can be found in the Tariff Brochure and/or the Website of the ING Office.

9.3 ING is authorised, irrespective of the Available Balance, currency of the Account and irrespective of whether this would generate an unauthorised Debit Balance, to debit the following from an Account:

- (i) Tariffs for the Services and the provision of information regarding the Services;
- (ii) Payment Transactions;
- (iii) (default) interest;
- (iv) third party fees and costs in accordance with Clause 9.1 of this General Part; and
- (v) any other financial obligation, in whatever name or form, towards ING.

9.4 All payments payable to ING shall be calculated and made without set-off, deduction or counterclaim.

9.5 Unless explicitly indicated otherwise all amounts are exclusive of any value added tax. If value added tax is chargeable the Client shall pay this to ING.

9.6 All taxes and levies – under whatever name and levied by whomever – that concern the relationship between the Client and ING are for the Client's account. The Client acknowledges that ING may need to (be required to) collect from the Client taxes, levies or similar charges on payments made to the Client or in respect of transactions entered into by the Client. If the Client is compelled by law or regulation to withhold or deduct any sum from any amount payable to ING, the Client will pay such additional amounts as may be needed for ING to receive the full amount had no such withholding or deduction been required.

10. Statements, bank records and recordings

10.1 The Client accepts full responsibility for monitoring and verifying all information, records, transaction history and overviews provided or made available to it by or on behalf of ING. The Client is obliged to verify whether the Services have been executed by ING correctly. If the Client contests any of the information it must inform ING immediately. The Client is deemed to accept the accuracy of the information if the Client fails to object to ING within two months of receipt of the information.

10.2 If the Client contests any of the information relating to a Service, it should follow the procedure as indicated in the applicable Service Documents.

10.3 The information contained in ING's records is deemed to constitute conclusive evidence between ING and the Client, unless the Client provides evidence to the contrary.

10.4 Every form of communication relating to products and services of ING and third parties and any other form of written or electronic communication between the Client and ING can be evidenced by ING by a written or electronic reproduction, recording and/or copy of this communication from ING's systems. Such communication and reproductions, recordings or copies thereof provide conclusive evidence between ING and the Client, unless the Client provides evidence to the contrary.

10.5 ING is entitled to record telephone conversations to assist in the processing of Instructions, retaining of evidence, monitoring of services and verifying the validity of Instructions. The Client shall inform its User(s) hereof.

10.6 If an error occurs, ING has the right to rectify or remedy this error, also after the period of two months has expired. ING does not require the Client's prior consent to remedy a mistake or error that ING has made and consequently, reverse an unauthorised Payment Transaction.

10.7 The Client expressly acknowledges and agrees that ING may rely on information obtained from a third-party service provider and that ING will not be responsible for the accuracy, completeness or timeliness of such information obtained from such third party.

11. Power of attorney

11.1 Any power of attorney granted to a User to do business with ING on the Client's behalf must be in form and substance acceptable to ING. The power of attorney is, unless otherwise stipulated in such power of attorney, governed by the laws of the country of incorporation of the Client. The User so authorised may perform all acts indicated in the power of attorney in the name and for the account of the Client regardless of any conflict of interest of the User. The Client hereby irrevocably and unconditionally waives any defence or claim it may have based on the existence of any such conflict.

11.2 Any power of attorney granted via an ING Channel is granted in accordance with and subject to these Conditions.

11.3 The Client shall ensure that Users are bound by and shall observe and comply with all obligations as indicated in the relevant Service Documents. The Client shall remain liable to ING for all obligations pursuant to the Service Documents, including all acts and inactions of Users. Each User is, unless explicitly otherwise indicated in the power of attorney, fully competent to severally perform the authorised acts thereunder.

11.4 Each power of attorney is valid until expired or revoked.

The Client must immediately notify ING in a form acceptable to ING of the expiry, revocation or amendment of a power of attorney regarding any User. Until ING receives such notification any power of attorney shall, irrespective of any registration with any public record of the details and/or any changes to it, remain in full force and effect. ING may continue the execution or forwarding of Instructions that have been given to ING by such User prior to or shortly after ING has received such notification if ING cannot reasonably prevent the execution or forwarding thereof. The revocation, expiry or amendment of a power of attorney does not have any consequences for nor shall affect (the validity of) any (i) Instruction with a scheduled execution date after the revocation, expiry or amendment, or (ii) power of attorney granted by a User prior to such revocation, expiry or amendment.

11.5 The Client is, if so indicated by ING, obliged to for and on behalf of ING identify and verify the identity (by means of a valid identification document) of each User and, if applicable, verify and validate the specimen signature of such User. The Client undertakes to securely store for a minimum period of seven years after the revocation or expiry of the relevant power of attorney all data regarding the identity and the verification and validation of the signature of each User. At ING's request the Client will provide such data in a format accessible to ING. ING is authorised to audit, examine and make copies of the data kept by the Client regarding the foregoing, and if so requested the Client must grant ING access to its premises and relevant data and records.

11.6 Upon ING's request the Client shall (i) confirm or ratify all acts that any User will have performed pursuant to and within the powers conferred by any power of attorney and (ii) promptly and duly execute all such documents and instruments, enter into such agreements and do all such acts and things as ING may reasonably determine as necessary in order to give effect to the provisions of this Clause.

12. Communication

12.1 ING has the right, at ING's discretion and irrespective of the manner in which the Agreement was concluded, to communicate with the Client in writing, verbally, via telecommunications (including the speaking computer or text messages) or electronically (including e-mail, app, Website or Channel, whether or not with the addition of an internet link).

12.2 ING will not be liable for any loss and/or damage resulting from the use of any form of communication by ING or the Client, including, but not limited to, loss or damage resulting from failure or delay in delivery, interception or manipulation by third parties or by computer programs used for electronic communications and transmission of Viruses.

12.3 The contact details of the Client and ING for any communication to be made or delivered under or in connection with any Service will be as stated in the Agreement, any other applicable Services Document or as otherwise updated by the Client vis-à-vis ING. The Client shall notify ING of amended contact details by not less than five Business Days in advance.

12.4 Any notice or communication sent by ING to the Client shall be deemed to have been duly given or made (a) in the case of delivery by hand, when delivered, (b) in the case of delivery by mail, three days after being deposited in the mail, postage prepaid, or (c) in the case of delivery by facsimile or other electronic transmission, when sent.

12.5 Documents and valuables of whatever nature, dispatched to ING by the Client or by ING to the Client, travel at the expense and risk of the Client.

12.6 ING may, yet is not obliged, to take out any insurance it deems necessary for dispatching or collecting valuables to or from the Client, at the expense of the Client. Dispatches can also be insured at the express request of the Client and at its expense. ING shall take out such insurance with the insurance company of its choice. ING shall not accept any liability in this regard. In the event of loss, the Client shall only be entitled to the insurance proceeds received by ING.

12.7 If parties to an Agreement have agreed that all communications from ING may be addressed to one party designated for said purposes by the other parties (whether in the Agreement or otherwise), any notice or communications from ING given to the party designated for said purpose will be deemed to also have been given to all other parties.

12.8 Unless agreed otherwise, the communication between ING and the Client will take place in the English language or, at ING's discretion, the language of the jurisdiction of the ING Office.

12.9 ING may require that foreign documents are legalised and bear an apostille and that communications and documents from the Client which are in a language other than agreed under Clause 12.8 of this General part are translated at the Client's expense by a sworn translator acceptable to ING.

13. Use of forms and formats

13.1 With respect to the Services, the Client is required to make use of the (hardcopy, online or electronic) forms and formats, if any, made available or as indicated by ING, duly completed, legible and bearing the handwritten or Electronic Signature, or any other form of identification as required by ING, whatever is applicable. ING may refuse to accept any document or execute any Instruction if it is not received in the required form or format, incomplete or the signature is not verified or does not match the specimen signature in ING's records. ING is authorised to act upon and rely on information contained in a form or Instruction from the Client.

13.2 ING has the right to declare (instruction) forms and formats invalid and to replace these forms or formats. If so, ING will inform the Client of any new form or format to be used. ING will not be liable for any loss and/or damage that the Client incurs due to the (instruction) forms or formats being declared invalid or used incorrectly.

14. Processing of information and bank secrecy

14.1 ING will obtain, use or otherwise process data, documents and information relating to the relationship with the Client, User and/or the Services for the provision of the Services and for internal analysis and supervision, risk management, product development, marketing activities, centralisation of storage, to safeguard ING's security and integrity, to comply with legal obligations and for any other purpose as communicated by ING. The obtaining, using and processing of Personal Data is subject to Clause 15.

14.2 To the extent permitted by any applicable law or regulation, the Client waives any bank secrecy, if any, and agrees with the transferring, processing and disclosure by ING of any data, documents and information obtained from or relating to the Client and any Services, and acknowledges that ING may be obliged to transfer, process and disclose such data: (i) within ING or to any third party service provider for any of the purposes as indicated in this Clause, (ii) to any third party for any of the purposes as indicated in Clause 23.1 and 24.1 of the General Part, (iii) if required for the providing of Services to the Client or any of its affiliates, to affiliates of the Client, (iv) as permitted or required by any applicable law or regulation, legal process, regulatory action, order, judgement or decree of a court or (v) to enable ING to comply with requests from or obligations towards local and foreign (tax and regulatory) authorities.

14.3 The Client acknowledges that the third parties to which any data, documents and information relating to the relationship with the Client, Users and/or the Services may be transferred and disclosed to, may be located outside of the EU. The Client further acknowledges that such third parties may be legally bound to transfer such data, documents and information to authorities or other third parties in accordance with applicable laws and regulations, including (but not limited to) U.S. authorities.

15. Personal Data protection

15.1 In addition to Clause 14, with regard to the processing of Personal Data, the Client acknowledges that Personal Data may be processed outside of the ING Office that obtained such data and represents and warrants (i) that it has received and read the Privacy Statements of the ING Offices (which is hereby incorporated by reference) and (ii) that it will inform and refer all authorised legal representatives, Users and (other) natural persons interacting on behalf of the Client with ING to this Clause 15 and the applicable Privacy Statements. The applicable Privacy Statements can be found on Privacy Statements • ING.

15.2 ING processes Personal Data in accordance with the applicable personal data protection laws and regulations and ING's "Global Data Protection Policy for Client, supplier and business partner data" (as from time to time amended or replaced by a similar global policy). The policy was approved by the data protection authorities in the applicable EU Member States.

16. Ownership and intellectual property rights

16.1 The Client is granted a strictly personal, non-exclusive and non-transferable license to, if applicable, use and install software provided by ING for the Services. However, no property or intellectual rights are transferred to the Client. This license provides only the right to install the software on the Client's computer and to use it for a Service in accordance with the purposes as indicated in the applicable Service Documents or as otherwise indicated by ING and is limited to the period the Client is authorised to use the Service.

16.2 ING and the third party, if any, who has conferred the right of use on ING retains all rights, including ownership, copyrights and intellectual property rights, of all ING Goods as well as to all information, recommendation and/or (other) services provided.

16.3 The Client is not permitted to change, copy, distribute, transfer, display, publish, sell or licence the (content of the) ING Goods, to produce or use any works derived from it or to create any link, hypertext or deep link from or to an ING Channel, Service or Website.

16.4 The trade names, brands and logos (or signs similar thereto) from ING and appearing on or in the Services and/or ING Goods are the property of ING. The Client is not permitted to use any of such trade names, brands and logos without ING's prior written consent.

16.5 The Client will immediately destroy or return the ING Goods, its personalised security credentials and/or any instruments for using a Service and/or accessing an ING Channel (which are capable of being returned) to ING, if requested to do so or if the Client is no longer authorised to use the applicable Service.

17. System requirements and security

17.1 The Client shall comply with and act upon the most recent instructions and system, software and other requirements for implementing, accessing and using a Service as stated by ING. ING will not be liable for any loss and/or damage incurred by the Client as a result of (i) changes to the software or equipment supplied by ING or a third party, (ii) improper functioning of equipment or software belonging to the Client or User, (iii) failure to act upon instructions of ING or (iv) failure to comply with the conditions for implementation, access and use of a Service.

17.2 The Client may need to have internet access, access to an electronic communication network or software to be able to use a Service. ING is not a party to any agreement in this respect between the Client and its provider. All costs of access to and use of the services offered by these providers will be for the Client's account and ING will not be liable for any loss and/or damage incurred by the Client relating to the services offered by those providers.

17.3 The Client is responsible for the security of the systems and devices used to access a Service. Without prejudice to the foregoing, the Client is obliged to ensure that up-to-date anti-Virus software, anti-spyware software, firewall software or any other relevant security tools are used to ensure the security of (the access to) a Service. Should the Client discover or suspect a Virus, spyware or unauthorised access to a Service the Client shall inform ING without delay and shall immediately take all necessary measures to prevent any loss and/or damage. ING reserves the right to block access to (part of) a Service following any such report.

17.4 The Client shall ensure that correct log-off procedures are followed when exiting or leaving unattended a computer or other applicable device with which a Service is used or accessed. The Client shall further take all reasonable precautions to prevent unauthorised use of a Service and the operating stations or IT systems from which a Service can be accessed.

18. Joint and several liability

18.1 The obligations of each ING Office under the Service Documents are separate and independent obligations. Failure by an ING Office to perform its obligations does not affect the obligations of any other ING Office under the Service Documents. No ING Office is responsible for the obligations of any other ING Office under the Service Documents.

18.2 Unless otherwise instructed by ING, any debt arising under the Service Documents to a specific ING Office can only be repaid to that ING Office.

18.3 If the Client is, in whatever capacity, a joint beneficiary of a Service or a joint holder of an account or asset, it is, together with such other beneficiaries or holders, jointly and severally bound by and liable towards ING for all related obligations. The Client and each such person are, unless agreed otherwise, individually authorised to issue Instructions towards ING regarding such Service, account or asset.

19. Security Interest and set-off

19.1 In addition to any other Security Interest granted to ING, the Client undertakes to grant a Security Interest and herewith grants a Security Interest over all present and future (i) claims the Client now or at any time, has or acquires against the ING Office and (ii) financial instruments, monies, documents and other goods held by ING, or a third party on behalf of ING, for or on behalf of the Client, as security for all existing and (contingent) future amounts the Client owes to the ING Office at any given moment which Security Interest ING herewith accepts. ING may enforce such Security Interest upon the occurrence of a breach of the Client's obligations towards ING, including any event of default as defined or set forth in any agreement between the Client and ING.

19.2 The Client grants ING an irrevocable power of attorney, with the right of substitution, to grant, create, register and/or perfect a Security Interest over the claims as stated in Clause 19.1 to itself in the name of the Client.

19.3 The Client represents and warrants that it is authorised to grant and create the Security Interest and that the claims in question are or will be free of rights and claims of other parties than ING.

19.4 The Client undertakes vis-à-vis ING to provide (additional) collateral and Security Interests for all existing and future amounts that the Client owes to ING, on any account whatsoever, and to sign any agreement or any other documents that may be required in connection with the granting and the creation thereof, at the first request of ING and to the ING's satisfaction.

19.5 Each ING Office shall at all times be entitled to set-off all and any of its claims on the Client, whether or not due and payable and whether or not contingent, against any claims the Client has on such ING Office, whether due and payable or not, regardless of the currency in which such claims are denominated. If however the Client's claim on ING or ING's claim on the Client is not yet due and payable, ING shall not exercise its right of set-off except upon the occurrence of one of the following events, which shall render such claim due and payable: in the event of a garnishment, seizure or attachment being levied upon the Client's claim on ING, in case recovery is being sought from such debt in any other way, in the event that a Security Interest or other restricted right is created thereon, the Client assigns its claims on ING to a third party, the Client is declared bankrupt, has entered into a moratorium of payments or another insolvency regulation or statutory debt repayment arrangement applies to the Client. Debts expressed in a foreign currency shall be set-off at the exchange rate on the day of set-off as determined by ING. If possible, ING shall inform the Client in advance that it intends to exercise its right of set-off.

19.6 At the request of ING, the Client shall promptly and duly enter into such further agreements, execute all such other documents and instruments and do all such other registrations, acts and things as ING may reasonably determine as necessary or desirable in order to give effect to the provisions of this Clause.

Schedule Payment Services

1. Scope

1.1 Payment Services are intended for transfers, deposits, receipt and withdrawal of funds pertaining to the profession or business of the Accountholder.

1.2 This Schedule is part of the Wholesale Banking Conditions. The conditions in the General Part and this Schedule apply to Payment Services.

1.3 Parties acknowledge that ING, when providing Payment Services, must comply with the rules and regulations of third parties such as the European Payments Council or any other relevant payment scheme, authority or body. In the event of a discrepancy between a Service Document and the rules and regulations of such third party, ING will provide the Payment Services in accordance with the rules of such third party.

1.4 From 9 October 2025 Instant Payments and the VoP will be provided by ING Offices located in EU Member States that have the euro as their currency, provided that the Beneficiary's Account is with a PSP located in a Member State also having the euro as its currency. Unless otherwise specified in a Country Specific Schedule, ING Offices located in EU Member States whose currency is not the euro will provide the Service to receive Instant Payments as of 9 January 2027 and the Service of sending Instant Payments and the VoP as of 9 July 2027. As of 9 July 2027, Instant Payment Transactions can be made to and from accounts held with PSPs located in the EU and the VoP will be provided in relation to all Payment Transactions in euro made between payment accounts held with PSPs located in the EU with the exception of payments processed and settled through large-value payment systems (such as, e.g., RTGS and EURO1).

As of the date of entry into force of Regulation (EU) 2024/886 in the EEA, Instant Payments can be made to and from Accounts held with PSPs located in the EEA and, to the extent introduced by such regulation, the VoP.

The relevant provisions in these Conditions related to Instant Payments and the VoP apply from the dates mentioned in this Clause 1.4. If relevant dates were to be extended by law, the dates in this Clause 1.4 are amended automatically accordingly.

ING Offices located in non-EU Member States will neither provide Instant Payments nor the VoP unless otherwise stated in the relevant Country Specific Schedule.

2. Payment Orders and VoP

2.1 Information on the manner in which the Client can give Payment Orders to ING is included in the relevant Service Documents.

2.2 The Client shall provide ING with complete, correct, unambiguous and accurate Payment Orders. ING is authorised to act upon and rely on information contained in a Payment Order howsoever received.

2.3 The Client will have to give its consent for the execution of Payment Orders to ING, or, if applicable, via a third-party PSP authorised to provide AIS/PIS Services or via a forwarding PSP used by the Client to manage its Accounts with ING as per Clause 27. Unless agreed otherwise, the Client gives its consent to a Payment Order by entering its Electronic Signature and/or other required means of authentication and submitting it or otherwise completing the initiation. If consent by more than one User is required, this shall be given once all relevant Users have entered their Electronic Signature and/or other required means of authentication.

2.4 If a Channel is used for the initiation of a Payment Order without (the use of) an ING Payment Instrument, the Client is deemed to have consented to the execution of the Payment Order once ING has received the relevant Payment Order. ING will execute such Payment Order as received from the third-party PSP.

2.5 ING is authorised to issue further instructions and set requirements and limitations regarding the use and form of any Payment Order and any means of authentication.

2.6 Each (manner to initiate a) Payment Order will be subject to restrictions set out by ING in the Service Documents. Not all manners to initiate Payment Orders are available to each Client and a Client can only use a manner to initiate a Payment Order if approved by ING.

2.7 Before consenting to a single Payment Order in euro ING will perform a VoP and inform the Client of the result: a 'match', 'no match', 'no match possible' or 'almost match'. In the latter case ING will provide the name of the payee to the Client.

2.8 For Batch Payment Orders in euro, the Client can (i) use ING's VoP Service for batches by presenting the relevant Batch Payment Order for the VoP Service, or (ii) opt-out from the VoP Service by presenting the Batch Payment Order for immediate execution. Unless otherwise indicated in the Service Documents, batches presented for the VoP can contain either Instant Payment Transactions or regular Payment Transactions in euro, but not both. For the purpose of the VoP, they cannot contain any Payment Transactions in any other currency.

2.9 If the Client uses the VoP for a Batch Payment Order, ING will provide a report with the VoP result for each of the Payment Orders as specified in Clause 2.7. The Client shall only use the VoP for Batch Payment Orders when presenting the Batch Payment Order for payment execution.

2.10 If a Payment Order is initiated in writing ING shall provide the VoP to the extent the Client is present at the ING Office to take note of the VoP result at the time of submitting the paper-based Payment Order.

2.11 If a Payment Order receives a 'no match' VoP result, the Client acknowledges that authorizing such payment might result in transferring funds to an Account that might not be held by the payee indicated by the Client. In case of a 'no match' VoP result, the Client acknowledges that its Channel may not facilitate ING displaying a notification that the funds may not be credited on the account of the intended payee. The Client explicitly accepts such risk and consequently ING shall not be liable for the adverse financial consequences thereof.

2.12 If ING is requested to execute a Batch Payment Order that contains a single Payment Order, the Client must first perform a VoP as per Clause 2.8 above. If such Batch Payment Order is presented for execution without the VoP, ING shall not be liable if the funds are not credited to the account of the intended payee.

2.13 If ING has executed a Payment Transaction in euro with (i) a 'match' VoP result, (ii) an 'almost match' VoP result, or (iii) 'no match possible' VoP result, ING will be liable to the Client in accordance with Clause 14.2 if the Unique Identifier did not belong to the payee on which the VoP was performed or should have been performed or in case of an 'almost match', did not belong to the beneficiary displayed to the payer together with the VoP result.

2.14 If the Client (i) has opted out from the VoP as per Clause 2.8 above, (ii) has instructed ING to execute a Payment Transaction that received a 'no match' result, or (iii) has instructed ING to execute a Payment Order in euro through ING's Direct Initiation Payment API, ING is not liable to the Client if the Unique Identifier did not belong to the payee on which the VoP was performed. ING shall, if requested, perform a reasonable effort to recover the funds related to the Payment Transaction. Any reasonable costs incurred by ING for such recovery may be charged to the Client.

2.15 In performing the VoP, ING as payee's PSP will process following data attributes: legal name, commercial (trade) name, legal entity identifier (LEI), fiscal number or another European unique identifier as referred to in article 16(1) of Directive (EU) 2017/1132. The Client shall ensure that these data attributes provided to ING are correct and up-to-date and immediately inform ING of any changes thereof to ensure ING responding correctly to VoP requests from payers' PSPs. ING, as PSP of the Client/Beneficiary is not liable for sending 'no match' VoP results to payers' PSPs if the data attributes are not correct and up-to-date.

2.16 If the Client initiates a (Batch) Payment Order through PIS Services, the VoP will be provided by such PSP.

3. Time of receipt and start of execution Payment Orders and Transactions

3.1 A Cut-off Time applies with respect to the start of the execution of Payment Orders (other than Instant Payment Orders). For Instant Payment Orders no Cut-Off times apply. Information on the Cut-off Times and other times prior to which a Payment Order has to be received by ING are available at www.ingwb.com/en/service/payments-and-collections/what-is-payment-cut-off-times or as otherwise communicated by ING. Changes in the Cut-off Times can be applied with immediate effect and without prior notice.

3.2 The point in time of receipt of a Payment Order, whether or not through a Channel, is deemed to be the point in time that ING has recorded that it has been received and the Client has consented to it.

The point in time of receipt of an Instant Payment Order (i) not submitted through a Channel shall be the moment ING has introduced such order into its internal processing systems, (ii) belonging to a Batch Payment Order shall be the moment such individual Instant Payment Order has been unpacked and (iii) from a non-euro Account shall be the moment when the amount of such transaction has been converted into euro.

3.3 The execution period of an Instant Payment Order shall start on the calendar day of receipt of such Payment Order in accordance with Clause 3.2. The execution period of other Payment Orders shall start on the day of receipt provided that such Payment Order is received on a Business Day and before the relevant Cut-off Time. In the event that the Payment Order is received on a non-Business Day or after the relevant Cut-off Time, the Payment Order is deemed to have been received on the following Business Day.

ING may make a reservation for the Payment Order in accordance with Clause 8.

3.4 The Client may request, in the manner as set out and indicated by ING, that execution of a Payment Order shall start on a specific day, at the end of a certain period or, if so agreed by ING, on the day on which the Client has placed funds at ING's disposal. The point in time of receipt of such Payment Order will be the agreed day for execution of the Payment Order. If the requested day is not a Business Day for the ING Office, the Payment Order (other than Instant Payment Orders) will be deemed to have been received on the following Business Day. If a calendar month has fewer days than the date upon which the execution of a Payment Order to transfer a specified amount periodically is scheduled, the execution shall start on the last Business Day of that month. ING will execute Instant (Batch) Payment Orders on the relevant calendar day requested by the Client.

3.5 No Cut-Off Time applies for an incoming Instant Payment Transaction. Such transaction will be credited on any day within the timeframes imposed by applicable law. Cut-off Times may apply for other incoming Payment Transactions. If such transaction is not received on a Business Day or is received after the relevant Cut-off Time it is deemed to have been received on the following Business Day.

3.6 ING shall execute euro Payment Orders to an account maintained with a PSP located in an EU Member State whose currency is not the euro and non-euro Payment Orders based on the Unique Identifier. Such Payment Orders are deemed to be executed correctly if ING executes it based on the Unique Identifier. Neither a name nor address is part of the Unique Identifier even when such information is required e.g. for control purposes pursuant to laws or regulations. ING shall have no obligation to check any discrepancies between the provided Unique Identifier and provided name or address. As of the relevant date referred to in Clause 1.4 (9 July 2027) this Clause 3.6 will apply to non-euro Payment Orders only.

3.7 ING is not liable for the consequences of the execution of a Payment Order referred to in Clause 3.6 if the Unique Identifier provided does not belong to the intended person. However, if requested, ING shall make a reasonable effort to recover the monies in connection with the Payment Transaction. Any reasonable costs incurred by ING relating to such recovery may be charged to the Client.

3.8 An incoming Payment Transaction (in any currency) is deemed to be executed correctly when executed based on the Unique Identifier only. Neither a name nor an address is part of the Unique Identifier. ING shall have no obligation to check any discrepancies between the provided Unique Identifier and any name or address provided.

3.9 ING shall provide the Client with a status report on the execution of an instant Batch Payment Order in the manner described in the Service Documents.

3.10 ING will inform the Client through the Website or an ING Channel of planned downtime thereof and/or its processing systems.

4. Maximum execution time of Payment Transactions

4.1 Instant Payment Transactions shall be credited to the account of the Beneficiary within the instant time frame imposed by applicable law after the receipt of the Payment Order by ING as per Clause 3.2.

4.2 Payment Transactions in the lawful currency of the EEA country where the Account is held (other than Instant Payment Transactions), to an account held with a PSP located in the same country, as well as Payment Transactions in euro to an account held with a PSP located in an EEA country or a country that forms part of the "Single Euro Payments Area" from time to time shall be credited to the account of the PSP of the Beneficiary at the latest by the end of the following Business Day following the point in time of receipt of the Payment Order as specified in Clause 3.

4.3 If a Payment Transaction referred to in Clause 4.2 above (other than an Instant Payment Transaction) is initiated on paper, the execution period shall be extended by one Business Day.

4.4 Payment Transactions in the currency of an EEA country which does not have the euro as its currency (other than Instant Payment Transactions), to an account held with a PSP located in an EEA country shall be credited to the account of the PSP of the Beneficiary at the latest by the end of the fourth Business Day following the point in time of receipt of the Payment Order as specified in Clause 3.

4.5 Other execution periods apply to Payment Transactions that do not fall under Clauses 4.2, 4.3 or 4.4 (other than Instant Payment Transactions). More information can be found on Payment cut-off times • ING or obtained from ING.

5. Book Date and Value Date

5.1 The Client cannot prevent the crediting of payments into its Account.

5.2 Incoming Instant Payment Transaction shall be credited to the Account within the timeframe imposed by applicable law irrespective of the currency of the Account. The Book Date of such transaction is equal to the Value Date.

5.3 Subject to Clause 3.5, when ING receives a Payment Transaction (other than an Instant Payment Transaction) that is to be credited to the Account without any currency conversion, or with a currency conversion between two EEA currencies, ING shall credit this amount on the same Business Day. In that case, the Value Date is the same as the Book Date. When ING receives an amount to be credited to the Account and a currency conversion in or from a non-EEA currency is required, the Book Date can differ from the Value Date.

5.4 In addition to Clause 8 General Part, when ING receives a notification to credit an amount to the Account, ING may credit such amount before ING actually receives it. In that case, the Book Date is the Business Day upon which the amount is credited to the Account and the Value Date is the Business Day upon which ING actually receives such amount and is at ING's disposal. In the period between the Book Date and the Value Date, the credited amount is not taken into account for the calculation of interest. If monies are withdrawn or debited from the Account during this period such that a Debit Balance would have arisen had ING not credited the amount before actually receiving it, the Client is obliged to pay debit interest over this Debit Balance.

In case ING does not unconditionally receive the relevant amount free at its disposal ING may, without prior notification, reverse the credit entry by debiting the same amount from the Account. If the amount received or to be received was converted into another currency when crediting the Account, ING may make the debit entry in such other currency at an exchange rate as determined by ING at the time of execution. All costs in connection with the reversal are for the Client's account. This Clause 5.4 does not apply to Instant Payment Transactions.

5.5 When ING executes a Payment Transaction or an Instant Payment Transaction from the Account, ING debits the Account on the Business Day or the calendar day respectively on which ING has started the execution in accordance with Clause 3. In either case, the Value Date is the same as the Book Date.

6. Revocation of Payment Orders

Unless otherwise stipulated in the Service Documents, Payment Orders are irrevocable. However, Payment Orders received by ING with a scheduled execution date may be revoked by the Client provided that such option is supported in an applicable ING Channel and the revocation has been received by ING via the relevant Channel on the calendar day preceding the scheduled execution date.

Information on the manner in which a Payment Order must be revoked is included in the relevant Service Documents. Payment Orders with a scheduled execution date will not automatically be revoked by the termination of the ING Channel, or the revocation of the authorisation of a third-party PSP, through which such Payment Order was initiated.

7. Refusal, suspension and forwarding of Payment Orders, Payment Transactions and Information Requests

7.1 ING may (fully or partially) (a) refuse to execute, initiate or forward or (b) suspend execution, initiation or forwarding of any Payment Order, (incoming) Payment Transaction or Information Request, if:

- (i) the Payment Order, Payment Transaction or Information Request is incomplete, incorrect or ambiguous or not in line with an agreed Service;
- (ii) there is any doubt as to the validity or legality of the Payment Order, Payment Transaction or Information Request or the identity or authority of the person giving it;
- (iii) a Payment Order, Payment Transaction or Information Request is received via a third-party PSP and there is any doubt as to the identity or authority of such party or there is a suspicion of unauthorised or fraudulent access to the Account or suspicion of unauthorised or fraudulent initiation of a Payment Order, Payment Transaction or Information Request by such party;
- (iv) the power of attorney of the relevant User has been amended, revoked or is otherwise no longer valid;
- (v) only for Payment Orders) the Available Balance on the Account is insufficient or the Payment Order exceeds any applicable limit;
- (vi) (only for Payment Orders) the Account is blocked or attached;
- (vii) (only for Payment Orders) a Security Interest, right of set-off or a retention right exists on the related Account;
- (viii) the Payment Order, Payment Transaction or Information Request violates any applicable law or regulation, (inter) national sanction list or ING's internal policy;
- (ix) the Payment Order or Information Request violates or breaches any agreement between ING and the Client;
- (x) the Payment Order concerns a currency which is not freely available to ING;
- (xi) the Payment Order or Information Request does not comply with the form, format and/or other requirements of ING;
- (xii) the Client is indicted or otherwise subject to any criminal or regulatory investigation or convicted;
- (xiii) ING has not timely received a confirmation from the Beneficiary's PSP that the Instant Payment Transaction has been completed by it. Where relevant, ING will credit the amount of the Instant Payment Transaction to the Client's Account if it has received evidence that the outgoing Instant Payment Transaction was not executed successfully; or
- (xiv) there is a suspicion of money laundering, breach of sanctions or fraud or a suspicion of unauthorised or fraudulent use, or irregularities related to its security of an ING Payment Instrument or a Payment Service, until it is evident that this suspicion is without grounds.

7.2 When the Available Balance on the Account is insufficient ING may execute a Payment Order with a scheduled execution date (other than an Instant Payment Order) on the next three consecutive Business Days from the initial execution date as soon as the Available Balance is sufficient. Point in time of receipt of such Payment Order is deemed to be the point in time the Available Balance is sufficient to execute such Payment Order. ING will refuse the (execution of the) Payment Order if the Available Balance is still insufficient at the end of the third Business Day.

7.3 Unless ING agreed to provide such Service, an ING Office will not execute or forward a received Payment Order or Information Request regarding an Account held with a third-party PSP or another ING Office. ING will not notify the Client in accordance with Clause 7.5 in such an event.

7.4 ING will not be liable for any loss and/or damage resulting from the non- or non-timely execution, initiation or forwarding of the Payment Order, Payment Transaction or Information Request as a result of a refusal or suspension in accordance with this Clause 7 or from a reversal of a Direct Debit in accordance with Clause 19.2.

7.5 Unless prohibited by applicable laws or regulations, ING will notify the Client of its refusal or suspension to execute, initiate or forward a Payment Order or Information Request and, if possible, the reasons for the refusal or suspension and the procedure for correcting any factual mistakes that led to the refusal or suspension. ING shall notify the Client as soon as possible and for non-execution of Payment Orders in any case within the timelines for such Payment Order as indicated in Clause 4. ING may charge the Client for the refusal or suspension of a Payment Order as specified in the Tariff Brochure.

8. Reservation for Payment Transactions

Reservations can be made by ING for Payment Transactions. A reservation lowers or raises the Available Balance by the amount of the (Instant) Payment Transaction to which the reservation relates. If a Payment Transaction is received on a day that is not a Business Day or after the Cut-off Time, a reservation, if any, takes place immediately and the execution will start on the following Business Day. ING will lift a reservation for an Instant Payment Transaction as soon as it has received evidence that the Instant Payment Transaction was not accepted by the PSP of the Beneficiary or was not executed successfully.

9. Payment Order in writing

9.1 A Payment Order in writing must be submitted in accordance with the requirements of ING.

9.2 By signing the appropriate form and submitting this form to ING, the Client gives its consent to the execution by ING of the Payment Order specified in the form. A fully completed and signed form constitutes an ING Payment Instrument.

10. Currency of the Account and execution of foreign currency Payment Orders

10.1 Accounts can be opened in the currencies as specified by the ING Office. The Balance on the Account is held in the currency as indicated in the Agreement. Additional conditions may apply regarding Accounts held in currencies other than Euro, United States Dollar, British Pound, Swiss Franc or the lawful currency of the jurisdiction where the Account is held.

10.2 Payment Orders can be executed in the currencies as specified and agreed by the ING Office. ING may decline Payment Orders in other currencies.

10.3 If the Client pays or receives amounts in a currency that is not the currency of the Account, ING shall debit or credit the Account with the equivalent value of such amounts in the currency of the Account. ING will determine the equivalent value based on an exchange rate set by ING.

10.4 ING may, at any time, change exchange rates with immediate effect and without prior notice. Exchange rates are determined by ING on a daily or more frequent basis. Information regarding the applicable rate can be found in the Tariff Brochure and/or the Website of the ING Office.

10.5 To maintain a Balance and execute Payment Transactions in the currency of the Account, other than the lawful currency of the jurisdiction where the Account is held, ING will hold a correspondent account at a PSP in the country of that currency. If the Agreement between ING and the PSP in respect of the correspondent account ends or is terminated for whatever reason, ING may terminate the Agreement and/or the Payment Service relating to the Account with immediate effect.

11. ING Payment Instrument and limits

11.1 The terms regarding an ING Authorisation Instrument as incorporated in the General Part also relate to the use of an ING Payment Instrument. In addition, the Client shall, and shall ensure that a User shall, forthwith report to the police and the other appropriate authorities the relevant events as referred to in Clause 5.7(i) General Part.

11.2 Upon receipt of the notification as indicated in Clause 5.7 of the General Part, ING shall take appropriate measures to prevent any (further) misuse of the ING Payment Instrument. At the Client's request ING will provide it with the means to prove that it made such notification up to 18 months after the notification.

11.3 In addition to the Available Balance and possible limits for User(s), limits can apply for specific ING Payment Instruments or Channels. These limits may consist of minimum and/or maximum amounts for which Payment Transactions can be carried out with an ING Payment Instrument or via a Channel. ING may change such limits and in urgent situations such changes can be applied by ING with immediate effect. ING will inform the Client accordingly.

11.4 ING may assign a validity period to an ING Payment Instrument and ING is entitled to shorten or extend such validity period at any time.

11.5 The Client may set a limit per Payment Transaction for an ING Channel as outlined in the Service Documents. Such limit cannot exceed the limit for the relevant Payment Instrument as referred to in Clause 11.3, if any. The Client acknowledges that some Channels may not (directly) facilitate setting such limits. ING is not liable for any adverse financial consequences if the Client uses such Channel or if the Client has not implemented relevant ING tooling or Channel to set such limits.

11.6 National competent authorities of ING Offices located in Member States whose currency is not the euro may impose limits for Instant Payment Orders from local currency Accounts. More information can be found in the Service Documents of the relevant ING Office.

12. Blocking

In addition to Clause 6 of the General Part, ING is authorised to block the Available Balance, an ING Payment Instrument or (access to a) Service in case of any of the events as indicated in Clause 6 General Part or Clause 32.

13. Unauthorised Payment Transactions

13.1 Until the Client has notified ING, the Client will bear any loss and/or damage resulting from unauthorised Payment Transactions that result from the use of a lost or stolen ING Payment Instrument, personalised security credentials of an ING Payment Instrument or any means of access to an ING Channel or, if the Client or User has failed to keep the personalised security credentials safe, from the misappropriation or unauthorised use of an ING Payment Instrument.

13.2 Without prejudice to Clause 13.1 and 13.3 and/or any other limitations of liability as stipulated in the Service Documents, when ING is responsible for the execution of a Payment Transaction and has established that such Payment Transaction has not been authorised by the Client, ING will refund the Client the amount of such unauthorised Payment Transaction no later than by the end of the following Business Day after being notified of the unauthorised Payment Transaction. The Value Date of such refund shall be the date the amount of the unauthorised Payment Transaction has been debited.

13.3 The Client shall bear any loss and/or damage relating to any unauthorised Payment Transaction if incurred by acting fraudulently or by failing to fulfil one or more of its obligations under Clause 11 intentionally or with gross negligence. If so, the Client shall be liable for any loss, damage, costs and expenses incurred by ING as a result thereof or to prevent further loss and/or damage to ING or third parties.

13.4 When ING demonstrates, in accordance with Clause 10 General Part that the Payment Transaction has been executed through the use of an ING Payment Instrument made available to the Client or User, the Client is deemed to have authorised and consented to the Payment Transaction.

13.5 The Client expressly acknowledges and agrees that if ING receives a Payment Order through a Channel initiated without (the use of) an ING Payment Instrument and/or ING Authorisation Instrument, ING may rely that it is issued by authorised persons. ING excludes any liability for any such Payment Transaction claimed to be unauthorised.

13.6 Notwithstanding that ING may have refunded the amount of the Payment Transaction to the Client in accordance with Clause 13.2, if, thereafter, ING demonstrates that the Payment Transaction had been authorized, the Client shall be liable to ING repay such amount plus applicable interest and the loss, damage, costs expenses incurred by ING.

14. Defective execution of Payment Transactions

14.1 Unless agreed otherwise, ING, if responsible for the execution of Payment Orders or Payment Transactions, will be liable to the Client for the correct execution, unless, if relevant, it can prove to the Client, and where relevant to the Beneficiary's PSP, that the Beneficiary's PSP received the amount of the Payment Transaction within the maximum execution timelines of Clause 4.

14.2 If ING is liable for the defective execution, it will restore without undue delay the Account to the situation had the defective execution not taken place. The Value Date of such correction shall be the date the amount of the defective Payment Transaction has been debited or should have been credited.

14.3 Without prejudice to Clause 14.1 and 14.2, the Client expressly acknowledges and agrees that if ING receives a Payment Order through a Channel initiated without (the use of) an ING Payment Instrument or Authorisation Instrument, ING has executed the Payment Order correctly if executed based on the information contained in the received Payment Order.

15. Fraud or security threats notifications

ING shall inform the Client in accordance with the procedure as indicated in the applicable Service Documents, in the event of suspected or actual fraud or security threats regarding a Payment Service or ING Payment Instrument used by the Client, unless such communication would compromise objectively justified security reasons or is restricted or prohibited by applicable laws or regulations.

16. Interest

16.1 ING will only credit interest to an Account that has been agreed by ING to be interest bearing.

16.2 Credit interest may be negative, in that case the Client shall pay either interest or a fee for maintaining any Credit Balance to ING on the interest payment dates as agreed upon in the Service Documents.

16.3 The Client is obliged to pay debit interest on a Debit Balance. If the relevant reference rate (e.g. Euribor or €STR) is below zero, such reference rate will be deemed zero.

16.4 The credit and debit interest rate shall be determined by ING. ING may, at any time, change the interest rates (including, if the interest rate is based upon a reference rate, the margin applied by ING above or below such reference rate) with immediate effect and without prior notice. Changes in the reference rate upon which an interest rate is based (e.g. Euribor for €STR) can be made by ING upon two months' notice. Notwithstanding the previous sentence, if a Nominating Body announces that such reference rate has been or will be discontinued, may no longer be used or that such reference rate is no longer representative of the underlying interest which it seeks to measure, ING may with immediate effect replace the applicable reference rate with an alternative as designated, nominated or recommended by a Nominating Body. In case no alternative reference rate is designated or recommended, ING may select an alternative at its discretion.

16.5 A Debit Balance exceeding an agreed credit limit (or if none, any Debit Balance) constitutes an unauthorised Debit Balance. An unauthorised Debit Balance is immediately due and payable without prior written notice being required and default debit interest rates apply and shall accrue until repayment of the unauthorised Debit Balance. The existence, even for a short period, of an unauthorised Debit Balance does not imply that the Client has any right to a credit limit.

16.6 Information regarding the applicable credit, debit and default interest rates, the interest periods and interest payment dates can be found in the applicable Service Documents, Tariff Brochure and/or the Website of the ING Office.

17. Charging principles for Payment Transactions

17.1 A distinction can be made between three types of charging principles with respect to the costs of the execution of Payment Transactions:

- Shared Cost (SHA): the Client pays the costs of ING and the Beneficiary pays the other costs;
- Our Cost (OUR): the Client, initiating the Payment Order, pays all costs involved;
- Beneficiary Cost (BEN): the Beneficiary pays all costs involved.

17.2 When ING executes a Payment Transaction from the Account held with an ING Office in an EEA country to an account held with a PSP located in an EEA country, the transaction will be executed by ING based on SHA, even if the Client has opted for OUR or BEN.

17.3 Payment Transactions which do not fall under Clause 17.2 shall be executed by ING in accordance with the choice for OUR, SHA or BEN as specified in the Payment Order. If no choice is made the Payment Transaction will be executed based on SHA.

17.4 ING will charge the costs for incoming Payment Transactions to the Client in accordance with the instructions received with that transaction. ING has the right to deduct the amount of the costs from the transaction amount but shall specify these amounts separately.

18. SEPA Direct Debit Core, SEPA Direct Debit B2B and local Direct Debit

18.1 The Client's Account can be debited based on (i) a SEPA Direct Debit Core or a SEPA Direct Debit B2B, provided the Account is held in euro, or (ii) if applicable, a local Direct Debit scheme, depending on the specifications in the Client's mandate to such Direct Debit.

18.2 The Client is deemed to have consented to a Direct Debit by issuing its Direct Debit mandate to the Beneficiary. Mandates can only be revoked with the Beneficiary and not with ING.

18.3 The Client must submit to the ING Office where its Account is held, in the manner as required by such ING Office, either a copy of the SEPA Direct Debit B2B mandate or information regarding such mandate. The Client must further submit specific instructions relating to that mandate and any revocations and amendments thereto. All such information must be submitted as soon as possible and at the latest the Business Day preceding the day the (next) Direct Debit under the mandate has been scheduled.

19. Refund of a Direct Debit

19.1 ING will refund a Direct Debit at the Client's request submitted in accordance with Clause 19.3, irrespective of the underlying reason for such request. A SEPA Direct Debit B2B cannot be refunded at the Client's request.

19.2 ING has the right at its own initiative to reverse a Direct Debit, including a SEPA Direct Debit B2B.

19.3 The Client must, in the manner indicated by ING, file a request to refund a Direct Debit with the ING Office where its Account is held within 8 weeks from the date on which the funds were debited from the Account.

19.4 ING shall credit the total amount of the Direct Debit to the Account of the Client within a maximum of ten Business Days after the receipt of a timely and correctly submitted request to refund such Direct Debit.

19.5 In the event of a refund or reversal of a Direct Debit, no compensation shall be paid for expenses or interest that has been charged to the Client. Furthermore, no credit interest shall be paid over the amount of the refund or reversal.

20. Unauthorised Direct Debit

If the period to request a refund of a Direct Debit as specified in Clause 19 has expired and the Client claims that the Direct Debit was unauthorised, the procedure set out in Clause 30 will apply. However, the Client cannot claim with ING that a SEPA Direct Debit B2B was unauthorised, if it has failed to inform the ING Office in accordance with Clause 18.3 of specific instructions relating to the relevant mandate or any revocation or amendment thereof in a timely and correct manner.

21. Direct Debit block by the Client

21.1 If requested ING will apply to, or remove from the Account, a selective or general Direct Debit block. A selective block can be a blacklist block or a whitelist block. As a result of a blacklist block, any Direct Debit to the credit of a Unique Identifier, creditor identification number, mandate identification number or to the credit of accounts held with a PSP in a certain country will not be executed. As a result of a whitelist block, no Direct Debit will be executed, except for Direct Debits to the credit of those Beneficiary identification numbers (if applicable, in combination with specific mandate identification numbers) which the Client has expressly communicated to ING. As a result of a general block, no Direct Debit will be executed.

21.2 The Client must submit a request to apply or revoke a selective or general Direct Debit block in the manner as indicated by ING. A Direct Debit block shall come into effect no later than the following Business Day after receipt of such request provided it has been received before the Cut-off Time.

22. Direct Debit block by ING

ING has the right at its reasonable discretion to apply a general or selective Direct Debit block to the Account. ING shall notify the Client as soon as possible stating the reasons for the block and, if necessary, which measures the Client should take to lift the block, unless such communication would compromise objectively justified security reasons or is restricted or prohibited by applicable laws or regulations.

23. Cheques

23.1 If agreed, the ING Office will make Cheques available to the Client.

23.2 The Client is deemed to have consented to a Payment Transaction based on a Cheque by completing and signing the Cheque and providing it to the Beneficiary. The Client's Account will, subject to these Conditions and any limitations regarding the execution of Payment Orders and Payment Transactions, be debited based on such Cheque presented by or on behalf of the Beneficiary to ING for payment.

23.3 A completed and signed Cheque is an ING Payment Instrument. In addition to the provisions relating to ING Payment Instruments the following applies to the use of Cheques:

- (i) the Client may only use Cheques issued or approved by ING;
- (ii) the Client may not put a future date on a Cheque;
- (iii) ING shall not be liable for any loss or damage incurred by the Client as a result of ING paying a Cheque before the date inserted on it or as a result of the counterfeiting, forgery or fraudulent use of Cheques;
- (iv) the Client shall without undue delay notify the ING Office in accordance with Clause 5.7 of the General Part on becoming aware of any loss, theft, misappropriation or unauthorised use of a Cheque;
- (v) the Client may revoke or stop payment of a Cheque in accordance with and subject to any restrictions in applicable laws and regulations before it has been presented by or on behalf of the Beneficiary to ING for payment. ING may apply a fee for revoking or stopping a Cheque as specified in the Tariff Brochure; and
- (vi) the Client must return to ING any unused Cheques upon termination of (the Payment Service relating to) the Account.

24. Cash deposits

24.1 If the Service of cash deposits is available with the ING Office, the Client may if agreed during office hours on Business Days make cash deposits in the currency of the Account into the Account at the counter of the ING Office, if available, at a cash deposit machine on the premises of the ING Office, or in any other manner specified by the ING Office, provided the currency of the deposit is the lawful currency of the jurisdiction of the ING Office. The Client may make a deposit in another currency if agreed by the ING Office.

24.2 When the Client deposits cash in accordance with Clause 24.1, the Client gives its consent to ING to execute the Payment Order by signing the relevant form, entering its Electronic Signature, ING Payment Instrument or via any other method as required by ING. The Client may not subsequently revoke the Payment Order.

24.3 ING may impose restrictions regarding the minimum and/or maximum amount in coins and number of banknotes that may be deposited at a cash deposit machine. If the Client wishes to deposit coins or banknotes at the counter of an ING Office or through other accepted means, additional requirements/restrictions may apply.

24.4 Cash that is deposited by the Client is counted and its authenticity may be verified. ING is obliged to confiscate counterfeit coins and banknotes and will not credit these to the Account nor will it provide any compensation for the confiscated coins and banknotes.

24.5 The Client will receive a receipt specifying the amount deposited. A transaction slip from a cash deposit machine is for information purposes only and the Client may not derive any rights therefrom. Notwithstanding Clause 29 and 30 Schedule Payment Services, if the referenced amount is incorrect, the Client must report this immediately at the counter of the ING Office.

24.6 Cash deposits in the currency of the Account made on a Business Day will be credited to the Account at the latest the following Business Day, after which the amount is at the Client's disposal.

25. Cash withdrawals

25.1 If the Service of cash withdrawals in banknotes and/or coins is available with the ING Office, the Client may if agreed withdraw from the Account an amount in the currency of the Account during office hours on a Business Day at the counter provided the amount withdrawn is in the lawful currency of the jurisdiction of the ING Office. The Client may make a withdrawal in another currency if agreed by the ING Office. Amounts withdrawn will be debited from the Account the same day.

25.2 When the Client withdraws cash in either banknotes or coins, the Client gives its consent to ING to execute the Payment Order by signing the relevant form and/or entering its Electronic Signature. The Client may not subsequently revoke the Payment Order.

25.3 In the event of withdrawals at the counter of an ING Office exceeding a specific amount, in certain banknote denominations or in a large number of coins, ING may require that the Client notifies ING at least three Business Days in advance. ING may impose further restrictions regarding cash withdrawals.

26. PSD2 account information and payment initiation services

26.1 This Clause 26 applies to AIS/PIS Services as introduced by PSD2.

26.2 The Client may give consent to an authorised third-party PSP to provide AIS/PIS Services regarding its Accounts held with ING. ING will enable the Client to access an ING Channel in which the Client can obtain an overview of the consents provided to such third-party PSP's, revoke a consent and, subject to Clause 6 Schedule Payment Services, revoke scheduled Payment Orders initiated via such third-party PSP.

The revocation of such consent with ING is without prejudice to any obligation of the Client towards such third-party PSP.

26.3 If for AIS/PIS Services provided by a third-party PSP no ING Authorisation Instrument is used, the Client can only use such services if and to the extent there is an agreement between ING and such third-party PSP.

26.4 If agreed, ING shall provide AIS/PIS Services regarding Accounts held with another bank. Additional conditions may apply to such Services.

26.5 If Instant (Batch) Payment Orders are initiated through PIS Services, the Client can view the status of these transactions through ING MyAccount.

27. Inter-PSP account management

27.1 This Clause 27 applies to the use of an ING Channel to manage Accounts held with a third-party PSP and to the managing of ING Accounts with a Channel provided by a third-party PSP. To be able to facilitate these Services it is a condition that there is an arrangement between ING and such third-party PSP regarding such services.

27.2 If agreed, ING shall enable the Client to use an ING Channel to submit Payment Orders to and receive information regarding Accounts held with any ING Office or third-party PSP. If ING provides such Services:

- (i) ING shall forward Payment Orders to third-party PSPs and/or make available information from third-party PSPs provided that the Accountholder has authorised:
 - the Client to add the Accountholder's Account held with a third-party PSP to the ING Channel, manage such Account, initiate and forward Payment Orders and/or receive information with respect to such Account; and
 - the third-party PSP where the Account is held to execute Payment Orders forwarded by ING and send information regarding the Account to ING;
- (ii) The Client herewith expressly acknowledges and agrees that ING may rely that all authorisations as specified in this Clause are in full force and effect until ING has received written notice to the contrary;
- (iii) The Client authorises ING to forward a Payment Order by entering its Electronic Signature and/or other required means of authentication and submitting it or otherwise completing the initiation of the Payment Order;
- (iv) ING will only forward Instant Payment Orders to the extent received in the format described in the Service Documents;
- (v) Unless otherwise indicated in the Service Documents, ING shall forward a Payment Order to the third-party PSP upon its receipt;
- (vi) ING shall only be responsible for forwarding the Payment Order to the third-party PSP. ING is not liable for conformity of the forwarded Payment Order with the format standards as specified by the third-party PSP. The execution of forwarded Payment Orders shall be subject to the conditions of the third-party PSP and ING is not responsible for the execution of those instructions or liable for the actions of such third-party PSP; and

(vii) Unless otherwise indicated in the Service Documents, a Payment Order (to be) forwarded by ING cannot be revoked with ING and revocation of a Payment Order is only possible directly with the third-party PSP responsible for the execution of the Payment Order and subject to its conditions.

27.3 If ING acts as forwarding PSP, ING shall provide the VoP Service to the Client. If ING acts as executing PSP it shall execute Payment Transactions without any VoP. The VoP will be performed by the forwarding PSP. If such forwarding PSP is not located in the EU, the Client acknowledges that no VoP will be performed and expressly accepts such risk. ING as executing PSP shall not be liable if the Payment Transaction was credited to an Account that did not belong to the intended payee.

27.4 Without prejudice to the requirements and limitations regarding Payment Orders and Information Requests as indicated in these Conditions, if agreed, the Client can initiate, submit and if possible, revoke Payment Orders or issue Information Requests regarding its Accounts held with ING through the Channel of a third-party PSP.

27.5 ING will only execute Instant Payment Orders initiated by the Client through a Channel of a third-party PSP if and to the extent received in the format as described in the Service Documents.

28. Account information

28.1 ING will inform the Client of the Payment Transactions, including costs, fees and the Balance on its Account, and, if the Client is so authorised, a third-party Account with ING with the frequency and in the manner agreed. The Client can choose from the options that ING offers at the rates specified in the Tariff Brochure. If agreed, ING will provide such information through an ING or third-party PSP Channel.

28.2 In addition to Clauses 14 and 15 General Part, upon receipt of a (series of) Information Request(s) ING shall disclose information regarding the Balance and the initiation and execution of Payment Transactions and confirm whether the Available Balance is sufficient for an intended Payment Transaction, to a third-party PSP authorised to provide AIS/PIS Services or issuing card-based payment instruments.

29. Checking the information on Payment Transactions

The Client is obliged to check the information regarding Payment Transactions regarding an Account held with ING that has been provided to it by or on behalf of ING promptly when provided. If made available through a Channel the Client is obliged to check the information regularly and at least once a week. The Client is obliged to verify whether Payment Transactions have been executed by ING correctly and whether it has authorised the Payment Transactions that have been debited from the Account held with ING.

30. Contesting, approving and recall of Payment Transactions

30.1 This Clause only applies to Payment Transactions regarding Accounts held with ING.

30.2 If the Client contests any of the information regarding Payment Transactions provided or made available to it by or on behalf of ING, or detects any incorrectly executed or unauthorised Payment Transaction, it must inform ING thereof without undue delay and no later than within a period of two months and take all reasonable measures to prevent any loss and/or damage. The period of two months starts on the Book Date or, if there is no Book Date, as from the date the relevant information has been provided or made available.

30.3 After the expiry of the period of two months referred to in Clause 30.2, the Client is deemed to have approved the data and information provided or made available by or on behalf of ING as well as the Payment Transactions regarding the Account.

30.4 After the Client has notified ING in accordance with Clause 30.2, ING will, at the Client's request make immediate efforts to trace the Payment Transaction and inform the Client of the outcome. Any reasonable costs incurred by ING relating thereto may be charged to the Client.

30.5 The Client may request ING to recall a Payment Transaction in euro that is processed based on the SEPA Credit Transfer Rulebook as issued by European Payments Council within the timeframes and subject to the conditions specified on the Website. ING cannot guarantee any successful recall of the funds, such recall is subject to the consent of the Beneficiary. In addition to the fee payable to ING for the recall, the PSP of the Beneficiary may deduct a fee before transferring a successfully recalled Payment Transaction.

31. Liability

31.1 In addition to Clause 20.1 General Part, direct losses and damages only comprise, and ING will only be liable for:

- the costs of execution of the Payment Transaction;
- the interest that is charged by ING or which the Client does not receive from ING as a result of the non-execution, unauthorised or defective execution of the Payment Transaction; and/or
- any exchange rate loss..

All other liability of ING arising out of, or in relation to, Payment Services and/or this Schedule is hereby excluded.

31.2 ING is not liable for unauthorised or defectively executed Payment Transactions if the Client has failed to inform ING thereof in accordance with Clause 30.

32. Term and termination

32.1 In addition to the termination grounds as indicated in Clause 26 General Part, ING is authorised to terminate the Agreement or terminate or suspend any specific Service, without being required to pay damages or any form of compensation, in case of the event as indicated in Clause 10.5.

32.2 ING will upon termination of an Account transfer any Credit Balance to such Account as designated by the Client. ING will not be obliged to close the Account and/or repay any Credit Balance if for whatever reason the Account and/or (part of) the Available Balance has been blocked or the period for rejection of Cheques credited to the Account has not expired.

32.3 ING is upon termination of the (Payment Service relating to the) Account entitled to convert any Balance into the lawful currency of the jurisdiction of the ING Office where the Account is held and book such Balance to another (new or existing) account with such ING Office. ING will determine the value based on an exchange rate set by ING.

32.4 ING has the right to charge costs and fees as indicated in the Tariff Brochure for the termination of the Agreement or Payment Service.

32.5 ING has the right to close an Account and terminate the related Service without a notice period if during a period of 12 months no Payment Transaction has been executed on the Account.

32.6 As from the moment of closure of the Account ING shall not pay interest on any Credit Balance. Any Debit Balance is immediately due and payable and debit interest shall continue to accrue until actual payment of the Debit Balance.

33. Deposit protection

Deposits of the Client might be protected to the extent and under the conditions set forth by the applicable deposit guarantee scheme. Schedule SEPA Direct Debit Collections

1. Scope

1.1 If agreed, the ING Office will provide the Service “SEPA Direct Debit Collections”.

1.2 SEPA Direct Debit Collections is a Service by which the Client can initiate Payment Orders to collect funds with its Debtors based on a Mandate for a SEPA Direct Debit Core or SEPA Direct Debit B2B provided by such Debtors. More information regarding SEPA Direct Debits and the requirements of ING can be found on www.ingwb.com/en/payments-and-collections/sepa-direct-debit.

1.3 This Schedule is part of the Wholesale Banking Conditions. The conditions in the General Part of the Wholesale Banking Conditions, the Schedule Payment Services and this Schedule apply to the Service “SEPA Direct Debit Collections”.

1.4. Any reference in this Schedule to “Agreement” is a reference to the Agreement regarding SEPA Direct Debit Collections.

2. Requirements for the Client

2.1 The Client shall comply with the requirements and procedures set by ING and with the rules of the most recent version of the relevant SEPA Direct Debit Rulebook. ING may amend its requirements and procedures at any time. ING shall give the Client prior notice thereof and specify within what period the Client must comply with the amended requirements or procedures.

2.2 To be able to initiate SDD collections, the Client must have a valid and correct Creditor Identifier. Information on how a Creditor Identifier can be obtained is available at ING.

2.3 The Client shall provide the Debtor with all relevant information about the SDD, including its Creditor Identifier and the unique Mandate reference, before submitting the first Payment Order relating to a Mandate. Furthermore, at least 14 calendar days prior to the Due Date of each SDD the Client shall give the Debtor notice of that Due Date and the amount of such SDD, unless another timeline is agreed between the Client and the Debtor.

2.4 ING is not a party to the underlying agreement between the Client and the Debtor. Any dispute between the Client and the Debtor concerning that agreement, the Mandate and related payments, including any Refusal, Refund or Reject must be settled directly between the Client and the Debtor, without any involvement of ING.

2.5 The Client undertakes to limit the number of Returns and Refunds as a result of unauthorized transactions on an annual basis to a maximum of 5% each of the total number of Payment Orders.

3. Mandates

3.1 To initiate an SDD collection from the account of a specific Debtor, the Client must have a valid and duly signed Mandate from that Debtor. A Mandate must comply with ING's requirements, the rules of the relevant SEPA Direct Debit Rulebook and applicable laws and regulations. The Client shall be liable for the consequences of an invalid or incorrect Mandate.

3.2 The Client shall archive the original Mandate, any amendment thereto and, where applicable, information regarding its cancellation or expiry for the longer of the minimum retention period as required by applicable law and a period of 14 months after cancellation of the Mandate. Upon ING's or the Debtor PSP's request, the Client shall supply the original Mandate, a copy thereof and/or any other relevant information regarding an SDD collection within 7 Business Days. The obligations of this Clause 3.2 shall survive any termination of the Agreement and will not be affected by the insolvency of the Client.

3.3 If the Debtor revokes the Mandate, the Client shall immediately cease to submit Payment Orders and revoke any outstanding Payment Orders relating to such Mandate.

3.4 If the Client receives a request from or on behalf of the Debtor to debit future SDDs from another account held in the Debtor's name, it shall exclusively submit Payment Orders for debiting the Debtor's account specified in such request. The Client shall archive such request together with and as part of the Mandate in accordance with Clause 3.2.

4. Submitting Payment Orders

4.1 An SDD can be a one-off collection or a collection in a series of recurring collections from the account of the same Debtor under the same Mandate. The timelines for submitting Payment Orders for a SEPA Direct Debit Core or SEPA Direct Debit B2B can be found on www.ingwb.com/en/payments-and-collections/sepa-direct-debit. For Batch Payment Orders deviating periods and specific Cut-off Times may apply.

4.2 ING will forward the Payment Order to the Debtor PSP in accordance with the relevant SEPA Direct Debit Rulebook. In the event that a Payment Order is received after the applicable Cut-off Time on the relevant Business Day in accordance with Clause 4.1, ING may adjust the Due Date of such Payment Order to bring it in line with the timelines applicable to SDD under the relevant SEPA Direct Debit Rulebook. If the Due Date specified in the Payment Order is not a Business Day, ING may reschedule the Due Date to the next Business Day.

4.3 Without ING's prior written consent, the Client may not:

- submit Payment Orders that exceed the maximum amount for each Payment Order as specified in the Agreement;
- submit Batch Payment Orders with (i) an aggregate amount exceeding the maximum amount for each Batch Payment Order as specified in the Agreement or (ii) a higher number of Payment Orders than the maximum number of instructions for each Batch Payment Order as specified in the Agreement; or
- submit (Batch) Payment Orders during a period with an aggregate amount exceeding the maximum amount specified in the Agreement for that period.

4.4 The Client shall supply with each Payment Order its Creditor Identifier, its Unique Identifier, the Debtor's Unique Identifier, Mandate related information and any other required information as specified by ING and shall submit such Instruction in accordance with (i) the parameters agreed in the Agreement, (ii) the applicable format requirements and (iii) the other procedures and requirements set by ING.

5. Execution of Payment Orders

5.1 The execution of a Payment Order results in the crediting of the Client's Account and the debiting of the Debtor's account on the Due Date. However, the execution of a Payment Order may be prevented by a Reject or a Refusal. For the avoidance of doubt, ING may also refuse or suspend the execution or forwarding of a Payment Order in accordance with Clause 7 Schedule Payment Services.

5.2 ING will Reject a Payment Order if:

- no amount has been credited to the Client's Account under the Mandate to which such Payment Order relates during a continuous period of 36 consecutive months;
- ING has received the Payment Order more than (i) 5 Business Days after the Due Date specified in the Payment Order if it concerns a SEPA Direct Debit Core or (ii) 2 Business Days after the Due Date specified in the Payment Order if it concerns a SEPA Direct Debit B2B;
- the Client fails to comply with Clause 4.3;
- the Payment Order has been submitted to ING more than 6 months prior to the Due Date specified in such Payment Order; or
- the Debtor PSP is not reachable for SEPA Direct Debit B2B.

5.3 The crediting of the Client's Account as a result of an executed SDD is subject to the condition that the periods as referred to in Clause 6.2 and 7 expire without ING refunding any amount under these Conditions.

6. Refunds

6.1 The Debtor is entitled to request via the Debtor PSP a Refund of an executed SEPA Direct Debit Core at the latest 8 weeks after the date on which it was debited from the Debtor's account. ING will accept such request, irrespective of its underlying reason, and refund to the Debtor PSP the amount of the relevant SEPA Direct Debit Core plus an amount to compensate the Debtor PSP for the related interest loss, if the request is received within such period. This refund by ING may take place until 62 calendar days after the execution date of the SEPA Direct Debit Core. The Client is obliged to reimburse ING for the total amount refunded by ING under this Clause to the Debtor PSP and pay for any interest paid or foregone by ING because of the crediting of the relevant SDD. To that end, ING is entitled to debit the Client's Account immediately for such amounts, whether or not with a Value Date equal to the date of the crediting of the relevant SDD. This Clause 6.1 does not apply to a SEPA Direct Debit B2B.

6.2 The Debtor is entitled to request via the Debtor PSP a Refund of an executed SEPA Direct Debit Core at the latest 13 months after the date on which it was debited from the Debtor's account, based on the claim that such SEPA Direct Debit Core was not authorised by the Debtor. If the Debtor PSP concludes, whether based on the information provided by the Client in accordance with Clause 4.2 or otherwise, that the SEPA

Direct Debit Core was executed without the Debtor's authorisation, ING will accept such request and refund to the Debtor PSP the amount of the relevant SEPA Direct Debit Core plus an amount to compensate the Debtor PSP for the related interest loss. This refund by ING may take place until 14 months after the execution date of the unauthorised SEPA Direct Debit Core. The Client is obliged to reimburse ING for the total amount refunded by ING under this Clause to the Debtor PSP and pay any interest paid or foregone by ING as a result of the crediting of the relevant SDD. To that end, ING is entitled to debit the Client's Account immediately for such amounts. This Clause 6.2 does not apply to a SEPA Direct Debit B2B.

6.3 The Client acknowledges and agrees that under the SEPA Core Direct Debit Rulebook any decision by the Debtor PSP with respect to a Debtor's request as referred to in Clause 6.2 is final. The Client agrees that ING is not responsible or liable for any such decision.

7. Returns

The Debtor PSP is entitled to initiate a Return of an executed SDD in accordance with the relevant SEPA Direct Debit Rulebook. For a SEPA Direct Debit Core the Return may be initiated at the latest 5 Business Days after the execution date of the SDD. For a SEPA Direct Debit B2B this period is 3 Business Days. ING will accept such Return, irrespective of its underlying reason, and refund to the Debtor PSP the amount of the relevant SDD.

This refund by ING may take place until 9 calendar days after the execution date of the relevant SDD if the Return concerns a SEPA Direct Debit Core, or until 6 calendar days after the execution date of the relevant SDD if the Return concerns a SEPA Direct Debit B2B. The Client is obliged to reimburse ING for the amount refunded by ING under this Clause to the Debtor PSP and pay any interest paid or foregone by ING to the Client as a result of the crediting of the relevant SDD. To that end, ING is entitled to debit the Client's Account immediately for such amounts.

8. Liability

8.1 ING will not be liable for any loss and/or damage resulting from:

- the Client submitting the same (Batch) Payment Order more than once and the forwarding thereof by ING to the Debtor PSP; or
- a Reject or Refusal in accordance with Clause 5.1 or 5.2.

8.2 ING will not be liable for the consequences of the execution of a Payment Order and any loss and/or damage arising therefrom, if the Unique Identifier provided by the Client does not belong to the Debtor as intended by the Client.

9. Termination

9.1 In addition to Clause 32 Schedule Payment Services ING is entitled to terminate the Agreement with immediate effect if the relevant Account Agreement is terminated or if during a period of 18 months no SDD collections were initiated, without being required to pay damages or any form of compensation.

9.2 The obligations regarding Payment Orders submitted before the termination of the Agreement will remain in full force and effect. Any claim based on Clause 6 or 7 that may rise after this Agreement has been terminated will immediately become due and payable.

9.3 In the event a limit as included in the Agreement is not being fully utilised by the Client, to match the Client's actual usage, ING has the right to reduce these limits without the Client's consent with two months' prior notice.

2. Fees and expenses

The following sentence of Clause 9.1 General Part is hereby deleted: "ING may change the Tariffs and the Tariff Brochure and such changes can be applied with immediate effect and without prior notice." and replaced with the following: "ING may change the Tariffs and the Tariff Brochure with a two months' notice period. The Client will be deemed to have accepted the change, unless it has terminated in writing the relevant Services with effect prior to the proposed effective date of the change. Such termination is free of charge. If the Client chooses to so terminate, such Services shall terminate on the effective date of the change."

3. Security Interest and set-off

3.1 The Security Interest granted by the Client towards ING pursuant to Clause 19 General Part is a pledge in accordance with French law.

7. Payment Orders in writing

In addition to Clause 2 and 9 Schedule Payment Services, all Payment Orders must be initiated via a Channel. In exceptional circumstances and only with ING's prior consent, Payment Orders in euro may be initiated in writing, subject to the prior completion and signature of the agreement for payment instructions sent by post, fax or email, and in accordance with the procedure described therein.

8. Fraud or security threats notifications

The information mentioned in Clause 15 Schedule Payment Services shall be provided by ING to the Client by telephone (or, if the circumstances so require, by another appropriate means), unless otherwise indicated in the applicable Service Documents.

9. Account information and invoices – E-statement Service

ING shall make available to the Client its invoices and the information on each of its Accounts referred to in Clause 28.1 Schedule Payment Services on a secured area of the Website (www.ingwholesalebanking.fr), on a monthly basis (subject to at least one entry during the month) unless otherwise agreed. Each User's username and password to access the E-Statement Service shall constitute an ING Authorisation Instrument for such Service. Account information and invoices shall remain available for consultation or download by the Client for a period of twelve months or, if earlier, until the closure of the Account. Account information and invoices shall be regarded as sent and delivered to the Client on the date on which they are made available on the secured area of the Website. Account information and invoices may also be sent to the Client in paper form, at the Client's request, each month at no charge (subject to at least one entry during the month) or with another agreed frequency at a charge.

10. Account termination/inactive Accounts

Clause 32.5 Schedule Payment Services is not applicable. Articles L.312-19 and L.312-20 of the French Monetary Code shall apply to inactive Accounts as defined therein. This may result in the automatic termination of such Accounts with the deposit by ING of any sums on such Accounts to the Caisse des Dépôts et Consignations, and ultimately in the transfer of the property of such sums to the French State, in accordance with such articles. ING shall inform the Client in accordance with such articles.

11. Receiving payment of cheques

11.1 Prior to sending cheques to ING for their collection, the Client must sign each cheque on its back and affix its company stamp thereon. The Client must include, with each cheque remittance to ING, its personalized ING remittance slip duly completed with the details of such remittance. Cheques must be sent to ING to the dedicated address indicated on <https://www.ingwb.com/en/network/emea/france>.

11.2 For cheques payable to the Client, ING will apply a hold on funds (the "Hold Period"). The standard Hold Period that ING will apply on such cheque(s) is 10 (ten) Business Days after the day of its (their) receipt by ING (the "Standard Hold Period"). A hold constitutes no guarantee that a cheque will not be returned as unpaid or otherwise after the expiration of the Hold Period. ING may extend the Standard Hold Period in case of suspicion of misuse or fraudulent use of the Client's Account. Without prejudice to the foregoing, ING reserves the right to credit the Account only after receipt of the corresponding funds, especially in the case of a cheque drawn on a foreign bank.

11.3 Cheques shall be paid into the Account only if they are made out to the Client's company name, trade name or brand name (in the two latter cases, the Client shall provide ING with evidence that it uses said trade name or that it owns the brand name).

12. Stopping the payment of a cheque

In addition to Clause 23 Schedule Payment Services, the Client shall be liable for all the consequences of any loss, theft or fraudulent use of Cheques forms until ING has received notice by letter, fax to 33 (0) 1 57.22.62.08 or email to cs.fr@ing.com to stop payment, giving the reason for wishing to stop payment and providing the information making it possible to identify the Cheque(s) involved. ING shall be entitled to freeze the funds for the Cheque(s) in question until a Court has ruled on the merits of the case, or the Client has withdrawn the stop notice.

13. Cheques issued with insufficient funds

13.1 In the event a Cheque is issued with insufficient funds, ING shall inform the Client by any means before it refuses payment of said Cheque.

In accordance with the regulations in force, if ING decides to refuse payment of a Cheque, it must:

- (i) send the Client a letter requesting it to return the Cheque forms in its possession,
- (ii) prohibit it from issuing Cheques other than Cheques used to withdraw funds until the situation has been rectified or for five years as from legal notice to this effect,
- (iii) inform the Client that it must inform its representatives that hold Cheque forms that they can no longer issue Cheques on the Account,
- (iv) inform the Banque de France of the incident.

At the end of a period of 30 days from the first presentation of the Cheque, the Beneficiary of the unpaid Cheque may, if a further presentation is unsuccessful, ask ING to issue a certificate of non-payment to enable the Beneficiary to obtain payment of the Cheque by action of a judicial officer (huissier de justice) or failing this, a writ of execution.

13.2 To regularise the payment incident, the Client must pay the amount of the unpaid Cheque or deposit sufficient available funds for the Cheque to be paid.

13.3 ING may, at the Client's request, cancel the reporting of the payment incident to the Banque de France where refusal to pay or the issuing of a non-payment certificate is due to an error by ING, or where the absence of funds or insufficiency of funds is due to an event for which it has been established that the Client was not responsible. The Client may, furthermore, institute proceedings before the relevant court to obtain the lifting of the prohibition.

Other/ Miscellaneous

14. Dematerialised bills of exchange and promissory notes

ING provides collection and Payment Services for dematerialised bills of exchange and promissory notes (lettres de change relevé ("LCR") and billets à ordre relevé ("BOR")). ING shall provide or make available to the Client the details of the LCR and BOR presented for payment from the Account prior to their settlement date. ING shall debit the amount of such LCR and BOR from the Account on their settlement date (subject to sufficient Available Balance) unless (i) the Client has given prior written instructions to ING to refuse all or certain LCR and/or BOR and/or (ii) the Client informs ING in writing, at the latest one (1) Business Day prior to the relevant settlement date, that it refuses to pay all or some of the LCR and/or BOR presented for payment. If ING is collecting an LCR or BOR for the Client and does not unconditionally receive its amount from the Debtor, ING may, without prior notification, reverse the credit entry by debiting the same amount from the Account. If the Available Balance is insufficient the reversal may lead to an unauthorised Debit Balance as indicated in Clause 16.5 Schedule Payment Services.

2. Termination

The first sentence of Clause 26.3 General Part shall be replaced by the following:

"The Client and ING have the right to terminate the Agreement for good cause with immediate effect. ING shall in particular be entitled to terminate the Agreement or terminate or suspend any specific Service with immediate effect and without being required to pay damages or any form of compensation:"

3. Gross negligence

For these Conditions gross negligence ("grobe Fahrlässigkeit") of ING means to infringe due diligence and care ("verkehrsübliche Sorgfalt") in a particular serious degree, if simplest, very obvious considerations are omitted or brushed aside and not taken into account what had come to everyone's mind in the given case.

4. Communication

Notwithstanding Clause 12.1 and 10.5 General Part ING will comply with any express consent requirements under applicable law with respect to any communication by ING to the Client.

5. Fees and expenses

The words "and such changes can be applied with immediate effect and without prior notice" of Clause 9.1 General Part are hereby deleted and the following shall be incorporated as a new sub-Clause of Clause 9 General Part:

"Changes in charges or fees for banking services, which are typically and permanently used by the Client during the business relationship with ING (e.g. account and portfolio management), shall be offered to the Client no later than two months before the terms shall enter into force. The Client has the right to indicate its disapproval before the proposed effective date of the change. Otherwise the change shall become effective upon the proposed effective date. The Client shall have the right to terminate the respective Agreement with immediate effect and without costs before the suggested changes enter into force. ING shall expressly draw the Client's attention to the right to indicate its disapproval and to this termination right in its offer. If the Client terminates the Agreement, the increased charges or fees shall not be applied to the terminated Agreement."

6. Banking secrecy and disclosure of banking affairs

The following provisions shall apply in addition to Clause 14 General Part as new Clauses 14.4 to 14.7.

14.4 Banking secrecy

ING has the duty to maintain secrecy about any Client-related facts and evaluations of which it may have knowledge (banking secrecy). ING may only disclose information concerning the Client if it is legally required to do so, if the Client has consented thereto or if ING is authorised to disclose banking affairs.

14.5 Disclosure of banking affairs

Any disclosure of details of banking affairs based on inquiry from a third party (not part of ING) for a statement regarding the Client's banking affairs (a "Bankauskunft") comprises statements and comments of a general nature concerning the economic status, the creditworthiness and solvency of the Client; no information shall be disclosed as to amounts of balances of accounts, of savings deposits, of securities deposits or of other assets entrusted to ING or as to amounts drawn under a credit facility.

14.6 Prerequisites for the disclosure of banking affairs

ING shall be entitled to disclose banking affairs concerning legal entities and on businesspersons registered in the German commercial register, provided that the inquiry relates to their business activities. ING shall not, however, disclose any information if it has received instructions to the contrary from the Client. Details of banking affairs concerning other persons, in particular private Clients and associations, shall be disclosed by ING only if such persons have expressly agreed thereto, either generally or in an individual case. Details of banking affairs are disclosed only if the requesting party has substantiated its justified interest in the information requested and there is no reason to assume that the disclosure of such information would be contrary to the Client's legitimate concerns.

14.7 Recipients of disclosed banking affairs

ING shall disclose details of banking affairs in accordance with Clause 14.5 and 14.6, only to its own clients as well as to other credit institutions for their own purposes or those of their clients.”

7. Security Interest and set-off

7.1 Clause 19.1 General Part shall be replaced by the following articles:

“19.1.1 Lien in favour of ING

- a. Agreement on the lien
The Client and ING agree that ING acquires a lien on the securities and chattels which, within the scope of banking business, have come or may come into the possession of a domestic office of ING. ING also acquires a lien on any claims which the Client has or may in future have against ING arising from the banking relationship (e.g. credit balances).
- b. Secured claims
The lien serves to secure all existing, future and contingent claims arising from the banking relationship which ING with all its domestic and foreign offices is entitled to against the Client. If the Client has assumed liability for another customer's obligations towards ING (e.g. as a surety), the lien shall not secure the debt resulting from the liability incurred before the maturity of the debt.
- c. Exemptions from the lien
If funds or other assets come into the power of disposal of ING under the reserve that they may only be used for a specified purpose (e.g. deposit of cash for payment of a bill of exchange), ING's lien does not extend to these assets. The same applies to shares issued by ING itself (own shares) and to securities which ING keeps in safe custody abroad for the Client's account. Moreover, the lien extends neither to the profit-participation rights/profit-participation certificates (Genussrechte/Genussscheine) issued by ING itself nor to ING's securitized and non-securitized subordinated liabilities.
- d. Interest and dividend coupons
If securities are subject to ING's lien, the Client is not entitled to demand the delivery of the interest coupons and dividend coupons pertaining to such securities.

19.1.2 Security interests in the case of items for collection and discounted bills of exchange

- a. Transfer of ownership by way of security
ING acquires ownership by way of security of any cheques and bills of exchange deposited for collection at the time such items are deposited. ING acquires absolute ownership of discounted bills of exchange at the time of the purchase of such items; if it re-debits discounted bills of exchange to the account, it retains the ownership by way of security in such bills of exchange.
- b. Assignment by way of security
The claims underlying the cheques and bills of exchange shall pass to ING simultaneously with the acquisition of ownership in the cheques and bills of exchange; the claims also pass to ING if other items are deposited for collection (e.g. direct debits, documents of commercial trading).

- c. Special purpose items for collection
If items for collection are deposited with ING under the reserve that their counter value may only be used for a specified purpose, the transfer or assignment of ownership by way of security does not extend to these items.
- d. Secured claims of ING
The ownership transferred or assigned by way of security serves to secure any claims which ING may be entitled to against the Client arising from the Client's current account when items are deposited for collection or arising as a consequence of the re-debiting of unpaid items for collection or discounted bills of exchange. Upon request of the Client, ING retransfers to the Client the ownership by way of security of such items and of the claims that have passed to it if it does not, at the time of such request, have any claims against the Client that need to be secured or if it does not permit the Client to dispose of the counter-value of such items prior to their final payment.

19.1.3 Limitation of the claim to security and obligation to release

- a. Cover limit
ING may demand that security be provided or increased until the realisable value of all security corresponds to the total amount of all claims arising from the banking business relationship (cover limit).
- b. Release
If the realisable value of all security exceeds the cover limit on a more than temporary basis, ING shall, at the Client's request, release security items as it may choose in the amount exceeding the cover limit; when selecting the security items to be released, ING shall take into account the legitimate concerns of the Client or of any third party having provided security for the Client's obligations. To this extent, ING is also obliged to execute orders of the Client relating to the items subject to the lien (e.g. sale of securities, repayment of savings deposits).
- c. Special agreements
If assessment criteria for a specific security item other than the realizable value or another cover limit or another limit for the release of security have been agreed, these other criteria or limits shall apply.

19.1.4 Realisation of security

- a. Option of ING
If ING realizes security, it may choose between several security items. When realizing security and selecting the items to be realized, ING shall take into account the legitimate concerns of the Client and any third party who may have provided security for the obligations of the Client.
- b. Credit entry for proceeds under turnover tax law
If the transaction of realization is subject to turnover tax, ING shall provide the Client with a credit entry for the proceeds, such entry being deemed to serve as in-voice for the supply of the item given as security and meeting the requirements of turnover tax law (Umsatzsteuerrecht)."

7.2 Clause 19.2 General Part shall not be applicable.

7.3 The first sentence and the first half sentence of the second sentence of Clause 19.5 (up to and including the words "such claim due and payable:") of the General Part shall be replaced by the following: "The German ING Office shall be entitled to set-off any of its claims on the Client that are due and payable, against any due and payable claims the Client has on such ING Office, in the currency in which such claims are denominated. If the Client's claim on ING or ING's claim on the Client is not yet due and payable, ING shall have the right of set-off upon occurrence of one of the following events, which shall render such claim due and payable:"

8. Liability

8.1 Clause 20.1 General Part shall be replaced by the following: "ING's obligation to pay damages shall be limited as follows: For damages caused by a breach of a material contractual obligation, ING shall only be liable up to the amount of the typically foreseeable damage at the time of entering into the Agreement; ING shall not be liable for damages caused by a breach of a non-material contractual obligation."

8.2 Clause 20.2 General Part shall not be applicable.

8.3 Clause 20.4 General Part shall be replaced by the following: "The limitation of liability as set out in Clause 20.1 shall not apply to damages caused intentionally or by gross negligence and in case of any further mandatory liability."

9. Indemnity

The first sentence of Clause 21 General Part shall be replaced by the following: "The Client will indemnify ING against any direct, indirect, and/or consequential loss, damage, cost and expense (including legal expenses) incurred by ING for which the Client is responsible and arising from or in connection with:"

10. Applicable court

In deviation from Clause 28.2 General Part, the German ING Office and the Client hereby irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Frankfurt am Main, Germany. ING may (if permitted by law) commence proceedings in another competent court.

11. Deposit Protection Fund

11.1 Scope of protection

ING is a member of the Deposit Protection Fund of the Association of German Banks (Einlagensicherungsfonds des Bundesverbandes deutscher Banken e.V.). In accordance with its By-laws – subject to the exceptions provided for therein – the Deposit Protection Fund protects deposits, i.e. credit balances which result from funds left in an account or from temporary situations deriving from banking transactions and which ING is required to repay under the conditions applicable.

Not protected are, inter alia, deposits forming part of ING's own funds, liabilities from bearer and order bonds, as well as deposits of credit institutions within the meaning of Article 4 (1), point (1) of Regulation (EU) No. 575/2013, financial institutions within the meaning of Article 4 (1), point (26) of Regulation (EU) No. 575/2013, investment firms within the meaning of Article 4 (1), point (1) of Directive 2004/39/EC and central, regional and local authorities.

Deposits of other creditors as natural persons and as foundations with legal capacity are only protected if

(i) the deposit is not a liability from a registered bond or a promissory note and

(ii) the term of the deposit is not more than 18 months.

Deposits that already existed before 1 January 2020 shall not be subject to this limitation of term. After 31 December 2019, the 'grandfathered' status pursuant to the preceding sentence shall cease to apply as soon as the deposit in question falls due, can be terminated or otherwise reclaimed, or if the deposit is transferred by way of individual or universal succession in title.

Liabilities of banks that already existed before 1 October 2017 are protected in accordance with and under the conditions laid down in the provisions of the By-laws of the Deposit Protection Fund applying until 1 October 2017. After 30 September 2017, the 'grandfathered' status pursuant to the preceding sentence shall cease to apply as soon as the liability in question falls due, can be terminated or otherwise reclaimed, or if the liability is transferred by way of individual or universal succession in title.

11.2 Protection ceilings

The protection ceiling for each creditor is, until 31 December 2019, 20 %, until 31 December 2024, 15 %, and, as of 1 January 2025, 8.75% of ING's own funds within the meaning of Article 72 of Regulation (EU) No. 575/2013 used for deposit protection purposes. Deposits established or renewed after 31 December 2011 shall be subject to the respective new protection ceilings as of the aforementioned dates, irrespective of the time when the deposits are established. Deposits established before 31 December 2011 shall be subject to the old protection ceilings until maturity or until the next possible termination date.

This protection ceiling shall be notified to the customer by ING on request. It is also available on the internet at www.bankenverband.de.

11.3 Validity of the By-laws of the Deposit Protection Fund
Further details of protection are contained in Section 6 of the By-laws of the Deposit Protection Fund, which are available on request.

11.4 Transfer of claims

To the extent that the Deposit Protection Fund or its mandatory makes payments to a customer, the respective amount of the customer's claims against ING, together with all subsidiary rights, shall be transferred simultaneously to the Deposit Protection Fund.

11.5 Disclosure of information

ING shall be entitled to disclose to the Deposit Protection Fund or to its mandatory all the necessary information in this respect and to place documents at their disposal.

Schedule Payment Services

12. Insufficient Available Balance

In deviation from Clause 7.2 Schedule Payment Services, if the Payment Order (other than an Instant Payment) relates to a payment in euro to an account held with a PSP located in an EEA country and the Available Balance on the Account is insufficient, ING may execute such Payment Order with a scheduled execution date at the latest by the end of the next Business Day if at the end of such Business Day the Available Balance is sufficient to execute the Payment Order. ING will refuse the execution of the Payment Order if the Available Balance is still insufficient at the point in time set out above. ING will refuse an Instant Payment Order if the Available Balance is insufficient.

13. Unauthorised Payment Transactions

Clause 13.1 Schedule Payment Services shall be supplemented by the following: "Sec. 675v German Civil Code (Bürgerliches Gesetzbuch, "BGB") shall not apply."

14. Report pursuant to German foreign trade regulation

The Client acknowledges and agrees that it will report any cross-border payments in connection with German current accounts as required under the German foreign trade regulation (Außenwirtschaftsverordnung - AWV). The Client waives any requirements of ING to inform the Client about its reporting obligations for individual payments in connection with German current accounts. Further information can be acquired by the Client from the German Bundesbank under 0049 800 / 1234 111 (only available if call is made from a German landline), per e-mail statistik-s21@bundesbank.de or under www.bundesbank.de.

In addition to Clause 4.2. General Part, the Client acknowledges that ING may impose restrictions on the type of Instructions, agreements and communications that can be agreed electronically and the type of Electronic Signature that can be used. Where Electronic Signatures are accepted, the Client will comply with any instructions communicated by ING to ensure that the electronic signing process is secure and that the documents are validly signed. ING reserves the right to refuse a document signed by way of Electronic Signature or to suspend the acceptance of electronically signed Instructions, agreements or communications more generally if the aforementioned instructions are not followed, if there is an actual or suspected misuse or fraud affecting the Electronic Signature and for any other reasonable reason. Until ING receives such notification any power of attorney shall, irrespective of any registration with any public record of the details and/or any changes to it, remain in full force and effect. However, ING shall only be held liable after the end of the fifth Business Day following receipt of the power of attorney, the revocation document or an amendment of a power of attorney regarding any User. Such revocation or amendment does not have any consequences for nor shall affect (the validity of) any (i) Instruction with a scheduled execution date after the revocation or amendment, or (ii) power of attorney granted by a User prior to such revocation or amendment.

Any power of attorney shall cease to have effect with regard to ING, following the occurrence of one of the causes stipulated in article 2003 of the Luxembourg civil code or any similar circumstances for a legal entity (including, without limitation, death, unless agreed otherwise, interdiction, entry into liquidation, dissolution, bankruptcy of the Accountholder or the User), on the fifth Business Day after ING shall have been informed thereof, although it shall not be required to gather such information itself.

(ii) Acceptance of communication by electronic means

If agreed by ING, the Client may send Instructions via fax, telephone, telex or as an attachment to email. The Client shall indemnify ING in full against any loss, damages, cost or expense incurred by ING and arising from the execution of such Instructions or the use of such means of communication. The transmission of Instructions by simple email is, however, expressly prohibited.

However, ING reserves the right, without being under any obligation, to agree to execute such Instructions in exceptional cases, with the Client being fully aware of the risks, in particular those set out in this Clause 6.1.

If necessary and by way of derogation from article 1341 of the Luxembourg civil code, ING shall be allowed to provide evidence of such Instructions by any legal means, notably by giving testimony.

ING is authorised to refuse to execute any such Instructions if it has any suspicion of any unauthorised or fraudulent Instruction; and

(iii) The Client acknowledges that it is aware of the non-secure nature of the means of communication specified in this Clause 6.1 and that Clause 12.2 General Part applies accordingly.

6.2 The last sentence of Clause 12.3 General Part is amended so that it reads:

The Client shall notify ING and any joint accountholder(s) in advance of amended contact details by not less than five Business Days (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any change of its email address(es) or those of its legal representative(s), proxy(ies) holder(s) and service provider(s) previously communicated to ING).

7. Data protection and bank secrecy

7.1 In deviation from Clause 14 General Part, the Client expressly accepts that, when transmitting information regarding Agreements, Instructions and Services, ING will be considered in all circumstances as having been authorized by the Client to transmit said information to, as the case may be, ING, ING Offices, a third party PSP or any other involved third party, in the name of and on behalf of the Client and discharges ING from its duty of banking confidentiality in that scope. This discharge shall continue notwithstanding any termination of any Agreement or cessation of any Service.

7.2 A Client opening one or several Account(s) with ING expressly accepts that the opening form and the information contained herein (i) will be transferred to a central storage unit for the purpose of storing such form and such information and dispatching it to any ING affiliate or ING Office with which the Client has opened or will open an account for the purpose of opening and maintaining such Account; and (ii) will be stored for at least so long as any ING affiliate or ING Office is under a legal obligation to keep such opening form and/or such information.

7.3 In instructing ING to execute a Payment Transaction, the Client authorises ING, its correspondent banks and any other organisation involved in the transmission or execution of the Payment Order to process all the data required for the correct execution of the Payment Order and/or required by the legislation/regulations in force. Such processing may, notably, be carried out from centres located in other European Member States and/or in the United States in accordance with local legislation. Consequently, notably the US authorities may have access to data processed and/or stored in these operational centres as part of their monitoring of terrorist activities.

7.4 The following paragraph is added as a new sub-Clause (vi) and (vii) to Clause 14.2 General Part: “(vi) being understood that any Client of ING residing in Belgium hereby consents to any transfer to the Central Point of Contact for accounts and financial contracts (CPC) of information concerning their bank account details and any financial contract such as, among others, mortgage loan contracts, consumer credit contracts, safe deposit box rental contracts, investment services contracts, life insurance contracts and leasing contracts as set out in the Belgian Law of 8 July 2018 on the organisation of a CPC for financial accounts and contracts and (vii) in case of any attachment, seizure or equivalent procedure on any claim of the Client on ING or on an asset or instrument held by ING for the Client, as validated by the courts, the amount of assets seized to the seizing party, independently of any proceedings for an affirmative declaration (“procédure en déclaration affirmative”).

8. Outsourcing

8.1 ING is bound by professional secrecy rules and may not communicate data concerning, and information relating to the business relationships with the Client (for this Clause 8 further “Information”) to any third-party, except when disclosure of the Information is made in compliance with, or required under, applicable law, or upon instruction or with the consent of the Client.

8.2 In addition to Clause 23.1 General Part, ING is expressly allowed to (partly) outsource to third parties in Luxembourg or abroad or to any other ING Offices globally (for this Clause 8 further "Service Providers"), certain of its activities, such as mentioned within the summary table "Third parties and/or ING Group common infrastructure" available on the website www.ing.lu or on demand.

8.3 The Service Providers appointed by ING may be regulated or non-regulated entities and are either by law subject to or contractually bound by ING to a (professional) secrecy obligation. The Client hereby acknowledges and accepts that the Service Providers might not be subject to the Luxembourg professional secrecy rules and that the professional secrecy that would be applicable to them may be less stringent than the Luxembourg bank secrecy legislation. In certain circumstances and despite their confidentiality undertakings, they may be legally bound to provide the Information to third-parties or authorities.

8.4 In that context, the Client confirms accepting to bear all consequences resulting from the transfer and/or disclosure of Information to the Service Providers and accepts that ING may not be held liable for any loss, damages or costs caused or incurred directly or indirectly from the transfer or disclosure of Information to the Service Providers.

8.5 The Information will be transferred and/or be available to the Service Providers for as long as the Client maintains a relationship with ING. A refusal by the Client of such transfer of Information, which must be made in writing, shall be deemed to constitute a termination notice with respect to the relationship with immediate effect without prejudice to the right for ING to keep with the Service Provider the data so transferred before revocation for the purposes mentioned above during the retention periods imposed by ING policies and/or by applicable laws.

9. Security Interest and set-off

9.1 The Security Interest granted by the Client towards ING pursuant to Clause 19 General Part is a pledge in accordance with Luxembourg law, including, without limitation, the law of 5 August 2005 on financial collateral arrangements. In the case of pledged assets, ING may, under the terms of the law of 5 August 2005 on financial collateral arrangements set-off, to the corresponding amount, the obligations of the Client towards it and those of ING towards the Client, without prejudice to the account indivisibility agreement and/or setting off stipulated in these Conditions. For this purpose, ING is authorised to carry out exchange transactions or to settle in advance any transactions maturing in the future. The Client expressly agrees that as long as ING accepts an express written waiver of the present general pledge in the context of the pledge by the Client of all or part of its assets deposited with ING in favour of a third party, this waiver remains under reserve of:

- Acceptance in writing of said pledge by ING;
- Creation of a new first ranking pledge in favour of ING, identical to the present general pledge, which shall take effect at the earlier of the following two dates : the date on which the third-party beneficiary of the pledge notifies ING that the agreement governing it (i) has ended or (ii) has been discharged. As needs be, the Client hereby irrevocably and unconditionally accepts the automatic creation of this new pledge in such a case.

9.2 In addition to Clause 19.5 General Part, all the transactions that the Client carries out with an ING Office are interconnected. All the Accounts opened and held by the Client regardless the type of account and the applicable conditions, shall constitute in a legal sense sub-accounts of a single and indivisible account. ING may merge the relevant Accounts or effect transfers from one Account to another as it sees fit. The balance of the single Account is secured by all the collateral pledged as security and personal guarantees linked to any of the various sub-accounts. If some sub-accounts are held in foreign currencies, they shall be converted into Euro at the exchange rate in force on the account settlement or transfer date. Furthermore ING, in the case where an asset expressed in a currency other than that in which the debit balance of another Account is denominated no longer offers a sufficient margin, reserves the right of immediate conversion. ING alone shall judge if such cover is sufficient.

9.3 Unless otherwise agreed, the Client waives the right to invoke Article 1253 of the Luxembourg civil code and agrees that ING may, at its own discretion, apply any sums received from the Client to the debt or proportion of the debt it is intended to reduce.

10. Term and termination

10.1 The last sentence of Clause 26.1 General Part is amended as follows: ING may at any time and without notice terminate its relationship and/or any Accounts without being required to justify its reasons to the Client, subject to the specific provisions governing credit. The Client shall be notified thereof in writing (postal or electronic) by ING.

10.2 Where the Client gives no instruction as to the transfer of the assets held following termination of the relationship, ING reserves the right to transfer its assets to the Caisse de Consignation (Official Deposit holder) in Luxembourg.

11. Time of receipt and start of execution Payment Orders and Transactions

In addition to Clause 3.4 Schedule Payment Service the Client may request that the execution of an Instant Payment Order shall start on a specific time on a specific day if facilitated by the local ING Channel offered by the Luxembourg ING Office.

12. Refusal, suspension and forwarding of Payment Orders and Transactions

2. Fees and expenses

The following sentence of Clause 9.1 General Part is hereby deleted: "ING may change the Tariffs and the Tariff Brochure and such changes can be applied with immediate effect and without prior notice." and replaced with the following: "ING may change the Tariffs and the Tariff Brochure with a fifteen days' notice period. The Client will be deemed to have accepted the change, unless it has terminated in writing the relevant Services with effect prior to the proposed effective date of the change. Such termination is free of charge. A change of the Tariff and/or the Tariff Brochure will only be considered as such for the purposes of this Clause if the Client obtains the relevant Service from ING and only such Client will be informed accordingly."

3. Communication

In addition to Clause 12.4 General Part, any information or notice to Clients published on ING's Website shall be regarded as delivered to each Client on the date on which they were published on the Website.

claim on the Client is not yet due and payable, ING shall not exercise its right of set-off except upon the occurrence of one of the following events, which shall render such claim due and payable: in the event of a garnishment, seizure or attachment being levied upon the Clients' claim on ING, in case recovery is being sought from such debt in any other way, in the event that a Security Interest or other restricted right is created thereon, the Client assigns its claims on ING to a third party, the Client is declared bankrupt, has entered into a moratorium of payments or another insolvency regulation or statutory debt repayment arrangement applies to the Client."

5. Applicable law and jurisdiction

5.1 The words "of the capital city" in Clause 28.2 General Part are hereby deleted.

5.2 Any dispute, claim or conflict arising from, or in connection with, a Service may be resolved in arbitration proceeding pursuant to Act No. 244/2002 Coll. on Arbitration only if ING and the Client entered into a written arbitration agreement or as otherwise provided for by the Arbitration Act. The arbitration agreement must satisfy the requirements of the Arbitration Act. A delivered arbitral award which is no longer subject to appeal has the same effect on the parties to the arbitration proceedings as a final judgment of a court.

5.3 Any dispute, claim or conflict arising from, or in connection with, a Service may be resolved out-of-court by means of a mediation under Act No. 420/2004 Coll. on Mediation only if ING and the Client entered into a written agreement thereto.

Mediation does not prevent ING or the Client from bringing an action in court or from initiating arbitration proceedings. The mediation may result in an agreement binding on the parties.

5.4 Any arbitration agreement or agreement on the settlement of the dispute through mediation entered into between ING and the Client (if any) is without prejudice to the duty of the Client under Clause 28.3 General Part to raise any complaints arising from or relating to the Services first with ING.

6. Commercial Code

The Client agrees that the provision of section 361 of the Slovak Act No. 513/1991 Coll. Commercial Code will not apply to any relation between ING and the Client agreed under any Service Document.

8. Revocation

In deviation from the second sentence of Clause 6 Schedule Payment Services, the Client may also revoke a Payment Order in writing as well as a Payment Order without a scheduled execution date, provided that such revocation has been received by ING before the Cut-off Time on the Business Day when the funds should be debited from the Account and provided that such Payment Order has not been processed yet.

9. Insufficient Balance

Clause 7.2 Schedule Payment Services is applicable regarding all Payment Orders other than Instant Payment Orders initiated by the Client.

10. Direct Debit

10.1 The last sentence of 18.2 Schedule Payment Services is not applicable for Payment Services provided by ING.

10.2 Clause 18.3 Schedule Payment Services also applies to SEPA Direct Debit Core. In deviation from Clause 18.3 Schedule Payment Services any revocation or amendment to a Direct Debit mandate must be submitted by the Client to ING at the latest 16 Business Days preceding the day the (next) Direct Debit under the mandate has been scheduled.

10.3 The Client's request (i) for a revocation or amendment to the Client's mandate for a Direct Debit given to ING, (ii) for refusal of the Direct Debit, (iii) to apply or revoke the general Direct Debit block, and (iv) for a refund of a Direct Debit can be submitted in writing or in any other manner as indicated by ING.

10.4 In deviation from Clause 21.1 Schedule Payment Services a selective Direct Debit block is not applicable for Payment Services provided by ING. Instead, a Direct Debit will be refused by the ING if so requested by the Client. Clause 21.2 Schedule Payment Services applies mutatis mutandis to such a request by the Client.

10.5 For the avoidance of doubt any Client's mandate for a Direct Debit given to ING will be deemed to be a revocation of a general Direct Debit block, if any.

11. Cheques

In addition to Clause 23 Schedule Payment Services, ING may enable making payments using Cheques within the limits defined by the Act. No. 191/1950 Coll. on Bills of Exchange and Cheques (hereinafter referred to as the "Bills of Exchange and Cheques Act"), the Commercial Code, the Uniform Rules for Collections issued by the International Chamber of Commerce in Paris, these Conditions and by other specific arrangements relating to a product, transaction or business relation. ING decides on the terms of acceptance of Cheques for collection and on the manner of collection of Cheques. Cheques payable to the Client shall be credited to the Account subject to clearance. Without prejudice to the foregoing, ING reserves the right to credit the Account only after receipt of the corresponding funds. ING is entitled to refuse a Cheque for collection without stating any reason and is not liable as to whether the collection will be executed. In case that Cheques sent by ING for collection are lost, destructed or damaged in transit, ING is not liable for such a loss, destruction or damage.

12. Contestation and approval of Payment Transactions In addition to Clause 30 Schedule Payment Services, if the Client has been unjustified enriched as a result of an incorrect executed domestic Payment Transaction by ING or another PSP in the Slovak Republic, ING may correct this by debiting or crediting the Account, whatever is applicable, with the amount of the relevant Payment Transaction.

13. Non applicability

The provisions of sections 3(3), 3(4), 6, 8(3), 10, 12 – 14, 22, 22a, 31 – 44 (except for subsections 44(2) and 44(3)) and 98(2) of the Slovak Act No. 492/2009 Coll. on Payment Services, shall not apply to relationships between ING and the Client.

14.1 By signing the relevant Agreement, the Client confirms that it is the (legal and beneficial) owner of all monies used for Payment Transactions of €15.000 or higher, or its equivalent in any other currency, and that the transaction is executed for the Client's own account. This confirmation applies also to Payment Transactions initiated by authorised Users as the representatives of the Client. If the Client is not the owner of such monies or if such transaction is not executed for the account of the Client, the Client undertakes to submit to ING, at the latest together with the Payment Order or any request or instruction regarding the execution of the Payment Transaction, a written statement specifying the owner of such money and the person for whose account the transaction is to be executed. Together with such statement the Client hereby undertakes to submit to ING also a written approval of that person to use its money for the transaction and to execute the transaction for its account. This declaration is provided and valid for the whole duration of the relationship with ING and will be used for execution of each Payment Transaction of €15.000 or higher, or its equivalent in any other currency.

14.2 ING reserves the right to withhold tax on any interest payable to the Client, in accordance with laws and regulations of the Slovak Republic, unless the international agreements or conventions provide otherwise. The Client that is not a tax resident of the Slovak Republic is considered for the tax purposes as the ultimate beneficiary owner of the interest income arising from monies on the Account, unless it notifies ING otherwise in writing. If the Client notifies ING that it is not the ultimate beneficiary owner of the interest income pursuant to previous Clause, ING is entitled to require it to provide the identification data of the ultimate beneficiary owner, as this has impact on the correct determination of the withholding tax rate. For the purposes of this Clause 14.2, the ultimate beneficial owner of the interest income is a person that receives income for its own benefit and has the unlimited right to use this income unconditionally without any contractual or other legal obligation to transfer such income to another person; or a permanent establishment of that person, if the activity associated with such income is carried out by that permanent establishment. However, the ultimate beneficial owner of the income is not the person that acts as an intermediary for another person.
