FOOTNOTES:
⁽¹⁾ Scheme responsible for the protection of your deposit: Your deposit is covered by the Dutch statutory Deposit Guarantee Scheme. If insolvency of your credit institution should occur, your deposits would be repaid up to EUR 100 000.
⁽²⁾ General limit of protection: If a deposit is unavailable because a credit institution is unable to meet its financial obligations, depositors are repaid by the Dutch Deposit Guarantee Scheme. This repayment covers at maximum EUR 100 000 per credit institution. This means that all deposits at the same credit institution are added up in order to determine the coverage level. If, for instance a depositor holds a savings account with EUR 90 000 and a current account with EUR 20 000, he or she will only be repaid EUR 100 000. This method will also be applied if a credit institution operates under different trademarks. The ING Bank N.V. also trades under ING, ING Bank, ING Bank N.V. This means that all deposits with one or more of these trademarks are in total covered up to EUR 100 000. In some cases, deposits over €100,000 are protected by the Dutch Deposit Guarantee Scheme. In that case, an additional protection of up to €500,000 per account holder per bank, on top of the standard protection of €100,000, applies for six months after the deposit concerned. For example, in the event that at the time of your bank's bankruptcy, you hold a balance directly related to the purchase or sale of a private owner-occupied home. This temporarily increased protection also applies to balances arising from a number of specific events such as the payment of a pension, disability benefit or severance pay, the dissolution of a marriage or registered partnership, an insurance payment or compensation for damages arising from criminal activity or a wrongful conviction. The temporarily increased protection only applies to natural persons, not legal entities.

⁽³⁾ Limit of protection for joint accounts:

In case of joint accounts, the limit of EUR 100 000 applies to each depositor.
