

Welcome Message from the CEO

Congratulations and thank you for choosing ING!

I'm Eva Bučová, and I have the privilege of leading ING Czech Republic. I look forward to welcoming you into our team!

Our Czech branch has been an integral part of ING's global journey since 1992, steadily growing through the dedication of talented colleagues.

At ING, collaboration across sectors, borders and time zones it's how we make a difference. We trust our people to work flexibly and take ownership, because we believe productivity thrives when our teams are empowered.

Working at ING means contributing to a more sustainable future through innovative thinking and meaningful client impact. We're not a typical wholesale bank and that's exactly why we attract people like you: curious, driven, and ready to shape the industry.

We're here to empower you to succeed and to speak up, because when everyone feels safe to share their ideas and concerns, we build a stronger, more inclusive organization.
