Debit and Credit interest rates

If, for any reason, any of the clients' Accounts kept with ING shows a negative (debit) balance or, in the event of an overdraft arrangement between ING and the client, the debit balance of the relevant Account exceeds the permitted limit approved for the client, default interest shall be accrued on the amount of such debit balance or of such excess, as the case may be. Default interest is 7.00% per annum for BGN and EUR, and respectively 9.00% per annum for USD. Interest paid on credit balances on Accounts are at ING's discretion and are available upon request.

Terms and Conditions for Financial Institutions

The present Terms and Conditions for Financial Institutions are an integral part of the Wholesale Banking Conditions as in force from time to time. The present Terms and Conditions for Financial Institutions apply to normal transactions. An additional charge may be negotiated for special services.

Collection of commissions and taxes

All commissions and taxes are applied on cumulative basis. All recurring fees (i.e. not per transaction or one-off) will be collected by the Bank within one month after the occurrence of the obligation for their payment.

Party to pay commissions

All commissions, postal and other out-of-pocket expenses are due by the party, which initiates the transaction, unless otherwise expressly stipulated.

Form of instructions

SWIFT is the only means of communications between the Financial Institution and ING Bank N.V. - Sofia Branch and all other types of communications would be used only as a back-up in the event of a contingency situation.

Compensated value date

In case the Client requests a Payment Order with same day value (SDVA code word), ING will make sure that the debit value date will correspond with the date on which the PSP of the Beneficiary is credited. Compensated value date is chargeable according to these Tariffs and Conditions.

Modification of credit transfer

The client is able to modify a credit transfer, provided that such request has been received by the Bank in original latest one Business Day prior to the execution date. Modification is chargeable according to these Terms and Conditions for Financial Institutions.

Required account opening documents

- Application for account opening
- Court Registration (or similar act of incorporation) of the company
- Articles of Association
- Certificate for Tax Registration
- Licence of a Financial Institution
- Annual Report
- Authorised Signatures Book
- Ownership Documents showing statutory and ultimate beneficial ownership

If the Financial Institution is a foreign legal entity, the above documents have to be notarized and legalized at the Bulgarian Embassy in the country of residence of the foreign entity or notarised and apostilled if the country of residence of the foreign entity is a party to the Hague Convention of 5 October 1961 Abolishing the Requirement of Legalisation for Foreign Public Documents. Additional documents can be required for meeting anti-money laundering requirements. Applications for account opening and supporting documents are subject to review and approval.

Revocation of credit transfer

The client is able to revoke a credit transfer, provided that such revocation has been received by the Bank in original latest one Business Day prior to the execution date.

Revocation is chargeable according to these Terms and Conditions for Financial Institutions
